Weekend walker tramps Bruce Trail

A marathon walker and hiking enthusiast Albert Monette, 57, of London, Ont. spent the Remembrance Day weekend in this district, a guest at the Dominion Hotel. During his stay in the area Mr. Monette continued with his hiking expedition along the Bruce Trail, reaching a point two miles north of the Terra Cotta Conservation area. This is 135 miles distant from Queenston on the Niagara River where his walk began earlier this year. Though his venture is undertaken only on weekends when weather permits, he is hopeful of completing his 430-mile long bush trail terminating at Tobermory sometime next year or shortly afterward.

VON rates increased

Homemaker rates will be increased to $18.50 per day, $2.35 per hour or $27.50 per day for a live-in rate. Halton Community Services Committee agreed at a meeting Thursday. That decision needs County Council approval.

The Georgetown Branch of the Canadian Red Cross offers homemaker services in North Halton. That operation is subsidized by Halton's Social and Family Services Department for those families who can't afford to pay for the full cost of the service.

Mrs. Swackhamer honored

A certificate of appreciation to long-time secretary treasurer Mrs. Irene Swackhamer was presented at Acton Agricultural Society's annual dinner. A crowd attended the happy event in Limehouse church basement and also heard mayor-elect Tom Hill speak on regional government.

Life member R. L. Davidson presented Mrs. Swackhamer with her certificate declaring "There isn't any member who has done more for the society."

Mrs. Swackhamer said her work had been a privilege and she passed praises on her successors, Mrs. Lorna Marshall and John Rowe.

observed. They have the interest of the community at heart and it's within their power to make this work. Since he's been attending regional meetings he is pretty much assured regional government will work. But he thinks this may take a year. Look to a regional fair within the northern area, he predicted, and eventually a Halton Hills fair.

Walter Linham introduced him and Russell Murray expressed thanks along with a gift.

President Fair president Bert Hinton in his remarks said the success of future fairs depends on young members working with older ones to get experience.

He would recommend having representatives from the ladies board on the main board body.

He recalled his rewarding experience and thanked various people in particular.

Others who spoke briefly included Mayor Les Duby, Erin reeve Don Matheson and 4-H rep Mac Armstrong. Head table guests included Miss Acton Fair Anne Luty, Dairy Princess Joyce Wilson, Queen of the Furrow Carol Somerville and Shorthorn Lassie Sharon Leslie.

Rev. Peter Barrow said Grace. Introduced were Mr. and Mrs. George Readhead and president Jim McKay from Milton fair. Dr. and Mrs. Oakes represented Warden Mrs. Anne MacArthur.

G and T buy Ed's restaurant

Ed and Mary Huxley have sold their restaurant business, Ed's Fish and Chips, to the G and T restaurant. The new owners took over Monday.

The original owners of G and T, brothers-in-law George Strozov and Thomas German of Toronto, now have an associate, Harry Georgiadis of Toronto, who will stay at the new location on Main St. Mr. Georgiadis has also had a restaurant in Toronto.

Evangelist is speaker

Guest speaker at the 128th anniversary service of Knox church Sunday is the Rev. Robert A. Crooks M.A. of St. Andrews Presbyterian church in Parry Sound. Mr. Crooks is a native of Ireland, 20 years in Canada now and all of them at Parry Sound.

He is an evangelist at large for the Presbyterian church and travels widely. He and his wife have two daughters and a son.

Mr. Crooks was in the news recently when he officiated at the surprise wedding of hockey star Bobby Orr.

Dinners
At the new location the menu will specialize in hot meals, with a wide variety of lunch and dinner choices.

G and T restaurant will still specialize in fish and chips, hamburgers, etc. and take out orders.

All three are from Macedonia originally. The brothers-in-law knew each other in the old country but they met Mr. Georgiadis here. They specialize in fresh food, including their meat and fish.
