

Janet McClure weds John Goy on October 6

Pink and white glads and mums decorated Knox Presbyterian church, Georgetown, for the marriage of Janet Ellen McClure and John Charles Goy. Rev. Peter Barrow conducted the double-ring ceremony Oct. 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell McClure, 5 Temple Rd., Georgetown. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Goy, R.R. 3, Acton, and is with the family business Goy Cartage.

They are living at R.R. 3, Acton. For her wedding the bride wore a Victorian style pea de sole gown trimmed with lace, Juliet cap and shoulder-length veil. She carried pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Her attendants were matron of honor Pat Roesner, Milton; bridesmaids Wendy Bowen, Acton, and Teresa Callaghan, Georgetown; and junior bridesmaid Erin French, Brampton, a cousin. They wore autumn-hued floral prints in gold, mauve and pink and carried colonial bouquets of pink and yellow carnations.

Groomsman was Ron Heller and the ushers Bill Cook, Jeff Goy and Bob McClure.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle Earl McClure.

Mr. Shrubsole played the wedding music and Brenda McNeil sang "You'll Never Walk Alone and We've Only Just Begun."

Reception Dinner followed in the church hall with a dance at the Oddfellows hall in the evening.

The bride's mother wore raspberry chiffon, silver accessories, red and white sweetheart roses and the groom's mother silver blue and peacock blue, silver accessories and pink sweetheart roses.

A neighbor Mrs. L. Bond made the bride's and bridesmaids' gowns. The attendants wore silver lockets, gifts of the bride. Guests attended from Deep River, Kirkland Lake, Barrie, Coldwater, Guelph, Brampton, Toronto, Georgetown and Acton.

The couple took a trip north. The bride left the reception wearing a long green and white dress with yellow sweetheart roses.

Before the wedding there was a presentation to the bride by Tyler Transport employees where she worked and to the groom by Goy employees.

An aunt Bessie McClure

held a miscellaneous shower Sept. 6, Leona Bond and Shelley McLean gave a miscellaneous shower Sept. 11; Bonnie Baxter held a miscellaneous shower for wives of Goy Cartage employees Sept. 12; the bridesmaids had a shower Sept. 20 at the home of Teresa Callaghan. There was a stag at the Acton Legion Sept. 21 and a wine shower for the couple at Acton Legion Sept. 27.

U.C.W. see slides trip to Australia

Unit 2 of the U.C.W. met in the parlor of the United church Nov. 20, a week late on account of illness. Mrs. Lidka, in the chair, opened the meeting with a poem "Stairways to God, a hymn and the U.C.W. purpose.

Mrs. Force took the devotional and Mrs. Veldhuis read scripture. Mrs. Force read the story clause by clause of the world's greatest prayer, The Lord's Prayer, explaining it is the only prayer given in the Bible by Jesus.

Sandwiches and fruit are to be supplied for 100 Tuesday, Nov. 27 when Halton Presbytery meets here.

Same slate

The same executive was voted in again for next year. The Christmas meeting will be Dec. 11 with a pot luck dinner before the meeting.

Christmas parcels will be packed Dec. 19. Mrs. Shoemaker gave her report on sick and shut-ins.

Roll call was answered by 53 home calls and 20 hospital calls.

Mrs. Gervais of Toronto gave members a rare treat showing pictures of her trip to Australia and commenting on them in a very interesting way.

After the Mizpah benediction lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Two tours for Y's Men

The Y's Men have taken tours at two recent meetings. A full two-hour tour of the Burlington O.P.P. headquarters proved very interesting. Two weeks ago they went through the Ford plant.
