 First Shift: The Dogs bite was worse than their bark. They demolished the Octopus in both games and moved up into second place in the standings. The Whales set a record to overpower the Cats winning one game and two totals. The Cats are still in last place but are beginning to scratch their opponents and win some points. The Rabbits hoped for a quick start, winning the first game from the Snails. Kenny Elliott bowled 50 pins over his average which enabled him to also win the pot. The Snails came to life in the second game, winning it and totals.
 Second Shift: The Kangaroos whipped the Sea Horses in both games today. Jeff Boufield led his team to victory, bowling 34 pins over his average in his first game. This was also pop for his team. The Crabs weren't afraid of the Donkeys at all. Eddie Bianchard bowled a nice second game of 193 which helped his team win both games from the Donkeys. Peter Lurdie bowled an excellent 385 double which led the Red Bears in winning both games from the Penguins who now have given up first place to the Kangaroos.
