

LET IT snow, played the band, and surprise! Snow fell on woolly-hatted George Elliott Sunday night at the high school.

STOCKING STUFFERS
Little kitchen helpers can find an abundance of stocking gift ideas for Mom in housewares and notions department. Pot holders, measuring spoons, measuring cups, thermometers, knives, serving utensils and hot plates make fine gifts.

Limehouse

Concert fills hall, parties, carollers news

by Mrs. A. Benton
The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Booth on Wed. evening. Mrs. Roughley in the chair and opening with a brief story of the life of Jesus. Mrs. Booth read the Christmas story from Matthew for scripture and Mrs. Noble led in prayer. It was decided to have articles or book reviews as before for 1974 study. The treasurer reported 13 paid memberships, nine subscribed to Glad Tidings, 25 calendars were sold and $19 was contributed to the supply fund.

Ten present answered roll call and text word exalt with a verse of Scripture and read a current event. Each read a verse or story pertaining to Christmas.

Mrs. Booth moved and Mrs. Noble seconded a motion to reinstate the 1973 officers, honorary pres., Mrs. Mitchell; president Mrs. Roughley; secretary, Mrs. A. W. Benton; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Patterson.
The hostess served an enjoyable lunch after the meeting closed with the Mizpah.

Flew east
Miss Blanche Brigham R.N. of Vancouver flew east to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Roughley, husband and family.

Group committee
Contributed by Limehouse Group Committee:

On Dec. 12, the Limehouse Brownies, Guides and Cubs held a Christmas concert in the Hall. Parents were invited to this event and the hall was full. Master of Ceremonies was Akela Steve Thompson and special guest was District Commissioner Gord Douglas. The Guides performed a skit entitled The Christmas Squeeze, the Brownies delighted everyone with the singing of Silent Night in sign language and A Partridge in a Pear Tree. The Cubs showed some rare dogs in a skit Doggies in the Window, and a short blackout skit On the Bus.

Activity leader Dave

Hannah put three Cubs through their gruelling work in a production called The Shooting of Mrs. Flibberty's Daughter. All leaders were introduced and Dolly Moulden of the Group Committee presented a special calendar to the Cubs to hang in their hut. A singsong was enjoyed by all and the highlight of the evening was the arrival of Santa Claus who distributed presents to all the Brownies, Guides and Cubs.

Coffee was served to the parents and candy was given to each child present. A draw for a Christmas stocking was won by Caroline Woodworth.

Euchre
Dec. 15 was the night the Limehouse Group Committee held their special Christmas euchre. Everyone attending had a ball. Special flowers were presented to all the ladies and a special buffet luncheon was served. Draw prizes were won by Elaine Hannah and Pat Patterson.

Baptism
Rev. P. Barrow baptized William Robert Karn, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Karn at Limehouse Presbyterian Church last Sun. morning.

Staff
The Limehouse Public school staff had roast beef and Christmas dinner at the home of Miss Carol Lawson, a staff member on Sun.

Your correspondent enjoyed a visit from a dozen or more Brownies out carolling on Monday evening.

We extend a Very Merry Christmas to the editor and staff and the many readers of the Acton Free Press

Halton Chambers form association

Halton Chambers form Chamber of Commerce representatives from the five Halton groups launched a new dimension of service when they formed what will be known as the Halton Region Chambers of Commerce Association.

President Bill Gallinger and manager Ron Harris hosted a meeting in Milton Wednesday when it was formed. Harris was named chairman for the 1974 term and Georgetown Chamber's past president Graeme Goebelle was named secretary.

"The Association will concern itself with items of regional interest and will recommend to—and get approval from—their local Chambers any items they feel to be a worthwhile project," chairman Harris said.

Plowing match
A regional support of the 1974 International Plowing Match to be held in Halton, and the Solandt Commission hydro route hearings were discussed at the inaugural meeting. Members decided it was too late to take any joint action on the hydro route controversy.

Meetings will be held bi-monthly in Milton on the last Wednesday of the month. Regional chairman Allan

RON HARRIS

Masson will attend a future meeting to advise the group on ways it can be of assistance to the regional government.

Burlington's first vice-president Don Crossley, and director Ernie Parry, Oakville's past president Jack Cornwall and manager Max McKenzie; Goebelle, Harris and Gallinger attended the recent meeting. Acton Chamber of Commerce is also involved in the organization but was unable to have a representative at the meeting, due to illness.

at Christmas

Old-fashioned ways of warm cordiality have a special meaning at Christmas. In this old-time spirit, we wish you holiday joy, ever-new, rich in the blessings of home, family, friends. Merry Christmas!

MANAGEMENT AND STAFF
TYLER TRANSPORT LIMITED
No. 7 Hwy. East - Acton - 853-1550

Merry Christmas

We wish to express sincere thanks to all our fine customers. It's a pleasure to serve you.

MANAGEMENT AND STAFF
Rainbow Beauty Salon