

Two agreements signed by hydro

Two agreements for hydro service were signed with Alf Berry and Mike Brodigan at the December hydro commission meeting Thursday, Dec. 13 in the hydro building. Hydro will be supplied to eight lots on Churchill Rd. N. and Block E of phase three of Kingham Hill Estates.

Hydro men will also install more Christmas street decorations. Usual seasons greeting and holiday closing ads were authorized. Arrangements for judging the home decorating contest were made.

Two or three will attend the OMEA convention in Toronto in January. Policy Another letter was received from Ontario Hydro more explicit on their Christmas lighting policy. The letter stated there is no shortage of electricity but hydro will be expected to supply more power with a greater involvement. Our responsibility is to support the wise use of electricity and support the government trend toward conservation, the letter continued. It advocated a modest approach to lighting and hours of use. "It's an irrational approach," commented mayor Les Duby shaking his head. "They're talking about turning off the lights at Niagara Falls — but they won't turn off the lights in Maple Leaf gardens!"

Need truck Superintendent Doug Mason said the commission needs a new truck with twin buckets. The present truck is 10 years old. A demonstrator had been in town that day. Mr. Tyler wondered where the truck would go eventually. Who'll have it? The mayor said it's most unfortunate the province hasn't seen fit to advise councils what's taking place with hydro commissions under regional government. Mr. Tyler said the more equipment we buy, the fewer people are needed. We know we'll be here for another year at least. Georgetown's not going to walk in and take our truck, Commissioner MacArthur said. Even with a new truck, the town would not have enough men to get all the work done.

Employees confused

Employees of Halton Hills except those in the Georgetown Water Commission will continue on as Halton Hills employees until the Halton Regional Council is prepared to have them become regional employees. While the employees will continue to be paid by the town they work for, the towns will in turn charge the region for the amount it costs them to pay the employee. A number of Halton Hills employees had called the regional headquarters asking clarification on that matter. Many assumed they would work for the region at the beginning of the year.

DRAMA ELECTIVE presented a play, "The Runaway Presents" at the Speyside school Christmas concert last week. In this scene the presents hide in a delivery shop to avoid being stacked at home.

Parade Over 200 people joined in the Santa Parade Saturday, Dec. 22, to make a success of the merry old gentleman's visit to Erin. His helpers delighted hundreds on Erin's Main Street, with dancing, singing, and bringing in the Christmas spirit. Santa handed out goodies to more than 850 children after the parade. Trophies awarded to floats, went to: first Erin Girl Guides with their Christmas train; second Ed Stewart's Garage with a Mother Goose Story Book; third to the Hillsburgh Potato Fest float with live potatoes and the queen and princesses of the festival.
