Peewees prep for Bon Soo tourney

Easy wins over Erin, Fergus and New Hamburg have kept Acton Y's Men's peewees on top of the Waterloo-Wellington league standings.

Y's Men led Fergus 6-0 here Saturday afternoon before Jamie Denny, a small but shifty winger notched the only two goals for his club.

Bert Post potted a pair of Acton goals. Randy Van Fleet, Steve Van Der Eyken, Rick Widmont and Bruce McPhail were the other Acton marksmen. Todd McIntyre and Dave McGilloway did an excellent job of playmaking. They each had three assists.

Goalies Chris Swetnam and Derrick Neely shared the shutout in New Hamburg Sunday night, as Acton scored a 5-0 victory over their arch-rivals.

Scott Malcolm paced the Acton offensive with two goals. Singles went to Charlie Kincaid, Dave McGilloway and Bruce McPhail.

Lions lose to Shelburne

Shelburne juveniles edged Acton Lions 5-4 here last night (Tuesday) in Waterloo-Wellington league action.

Giles fired three goals for the winners. Henderson and Quinn added single goals.

George Arzen connected twice and Rolf Hoyer and Wayne Allan once each for Acton. Assists went to Allan, Hoyer, Ken Withers, Kevin Marcoux and Pete Pavil.

Big blue beats Sabres

Bradford Vaseys won the O.H.A. Junior "D" championship last year and now the talent-laden "big blue machine" appears to be ready to make a run at the O.H.A. Junior "C" title.

Vaseys, who have lost only one of their first 20 Central Ontario Junior "C" league games dumped the third place Acton Sabres 3-1 in Acton Friday night to open up a seven point lead over the second place Stayner Siskins.

College competition calls Acton lads back

Two Acton High grads home from U.S. colleges for Christmas returned to resume athletic competition before the new year.

Steve Van Fleet, a sophomore at Miami of Ohio spent Christmas with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bern Van Fleet, Nelson Court, then returned to Oxford Ohio to prepare for the indoor track season. Van Fleet, a javelin thrower who was named the school's freshman track athlete of the year last season worked himself into such excellent physical condition

Midgets split four games

Penalties continue to plague Acton CFAW midgets in Waterloo-Wellington league play.

Midgets blanked Elora 2-0 and Erin 4-0 over the holidays, but lost 4-1 to New Hamburg Sunday and 5-1 to Elmira here last night (Tuesday) New Hamburg and Elmira are much tougher teams.

Mohawks don't like Love

Ray Love scored the winning goal with five minutes to play Friday night, as Milton Flyers upset Burlington Mohawks 6-5 for the third time

John Hansen scored from Allan White and John McArman in the first period of Sunday's game in New Hamburg and that ended the Acton scoring. Steckley, Whitaker, Haffner and Soehner were the New Hamburg marksmen.

Curling

The Ladies' provincial playdowns are underway at Acton curling club this week. Finals are Thursday afternoon.

Coaches clinic open to all Saturday

Hockey enthusiasts from Acton, Georgetown, Milton and surrounding areas are invited to attend the O.H.A. coaches clinic to be held at the Acton community centre this Saturday, January 12 beginning at 1:30.

The clinic has been arranged by O.H.A. technical director Ron Smith in cooperation with the Acton (Waterloo-Wellington) Minor Hockey Association. Similar clinics have been conducted

Those interested need only show up at the community centre at 1:30 Saturday and pay a small registration fee of $1.

Acton (W-W) Minor Hockey president Don Lindsay said he hopes as many people as possible in the area will take advantage of the instruction. If the clinic is successful he said an effort will be made to hold a referees' instruction clinic here next year. At present Acton depends totally upon Gerry Perkins and his staff in Georgetown to officiate OMHA games.

Bant record improves goalie troika shines

Acton Firefighter bantams continue to improve their play in the new year. Bantams lifted their record to a very respectable 9-3-5 by picking up a pair of wins and a pair of ties last week.

Bantams beat Erin 7-4 in Erin Thursday night, as Joe Gardin bagged a hat trick and Ford Allen, Rick Van Fleet, Jeff Shields and Marvin McNabb tallied single goals.

Darrell Presley, Peter Wicklum, Scott MacDougall and Chris O'Connor replied for Erin.

James Haunn and Mark Soehner replied for the burgers.

Playing their fourth game in six days last night (Tuesday) Firefighters blew a 3-1 lead and had to settle for a 3-3 tie with Elmira.

Joe Gardin had a pair of goals and Fred Allen a single for Acton. Assists went to Rob Widmont, Brad Buchanan, Jeff Shields and Bill Manos.

Coach Harold Townsley reports that all three of his goalies, Gary Medland, Doug McKnight and Mark Williamson came up with exceptionally good efforts over the four game stretch.

"Right now there isn't a player on the team who isn't giving it everything he's got. They're working as a team," coach Townsley added.

The 9-3-5 Acton record is even more impressive when compared to last year when the bantam team failed to win a league game.

Saturday afternoon at the community centre Ricky Holmes cashed in Kevin Weir's pass at 11:55 of the final frame to give Acton a 2-2 tie against Fergus. Scott Withers also scored for the Firefighters, while Dave Canzi and Steve Smith connected for Fergus.

Gardin netted a pair of goals and Jamie Vickery and Scott Withers tallied singles in a 4-2 victory in New Hamburg Sunday night. Brad Buchanan earned an assist.

Burg scares novice team

Acton novices came very close to dropping their first game of the minor hockey season, when they narrowly beat a hustling Hillsburgh club 3-2 Saturday in the "Burg."

Ken Kavanagh netted a pair of goals and Brian Demone sniped a single for Acton. Bruce Shannon set up two of the goals with neat passes.

Scott Kennedy and Darren Abernathy scored for Hillsburgh. Kennedy and Ken McArthur earned assists.

John Kavanagh scored seven goals and cousin Jim added three, as Blow Press blasted Hellors 15-5 in the Acton industrial hockey league Sunday night.

Elsewhere Dan McGilloway's five goal effort sparked Ken's Auto Service to an 8-5 victory over Station Hotel and Van's Wedding edged Lakeview Centre 6-5.

Mike Miller also bagged a hat trick for Blow Press, while Ray Stull and Don Rogers shot single goals.

Ron Mellon had a pair and Lloyd Smallwood, Wayne DeForest and Gord Allen one each for Hellors.

Les King, Jim McDonald and Floyd Hillier rounded out the scoring for Ken's Auto Service.

Cecil Stuckless scored twice and Ron Schmidt, Dave Hyder and Russ Masales counted once each for the Hellors.

Woody Fabian and Jim Whitmill each connected twice for Van's Wedding. Kra Owen and Brian Wilkinson added single goals.

Cyril Rees had three goals and Steve Townsley and Norm King one apiece for Lakeview.
