Peewees take bite out of the bulldogs

Acton Y's Men's pee wees took the bite out of the Milton major pee wee Buildogs, league leaders in the Tricounty loop 1-0 in an exciting exhibition game at the community centre last night (Tuesday). Besides their record of 15 wins and two tles In 17 Waterloo-Wellington league games, Y's Men have now gone six exhibition games against higher calibre teams without defeat, including wins over Georgetown and Bay Ridges.

Winger Bert Post and goalie Derrick Neeley shared the spotlight for Acton last inight against a very strong Milton club, which has been beaten only once in league play by Chinguacousy and once in exhibition play by Burlington,

After two scoreless periods in which both teams hit hard and checked closely, Post backhanded a shot high into the Milton cage on a rebound off a Scott Malcolm shot at 5.20 of the third period. Bruce McPhail also assisted on the goal. Post handed out the best check of the night, flattening a Milton player with a clean hip in the stomach in the third period.

Neeley played a heads up game in goal, robbing the high-scoring Milton club on many opportunities which could have turned the game right around.

In their second last game of the regular Waterloo-Wellington lengue schedule Monday night, Acton whipped the Elora pee wee Rocks 8-3, as Bruce McPhail scored

McPhail, McGilloway, Widmont and George Brown contributed a pair of assists apiece to the Acton scoring

Gary Short, Bryan Mann and David Forbes handled the Elora scoring.

Police report

The reporting week of January 13 to 19 was relatively quiet for officers of the Acton O.P.P., even though the rain and cold weather caused severe ice conditions and made driving treacherous.

There were 20 general occurrences reported which included a variety of complaints from a lost license plate to found school books.

laid against persons driving their vehicles without first cleaning off the windows. This is a very dangerous practice and the police suggest that for the little extra effort and time it takes, you may save yourself a fine or prevent a serious accident from occurring. There were two motor vehicle collisions involving property damage only. Acton Municipal Detachment, O.P.P.
