$500 donation to church

By Mrs. R. Shortill Mrs. Evelyn Snow was hostess on Tuesday evening for the January meeting of the United Church Women. A good attendance enjoyed the interesting meeting.
The roll call was answered by paying fees and giving a household hint. Several items were discussed. Mrs. Joyce

Clarke reported on the finances. It was voted to advance $500 to the church treasurer. A new vacuum cleaner has been purchased. Itailings have been installed on steps, front and back leading to the basement. The new president, Mrs. Ernest McEnery then called on Mrs. Elaine Sales to take the devotional, theme "Love". Isn't mission work really love? How often we leave the red side of our offering envelope empty. Of course we must support our church finances but the other half shows our love for our fellow man.

Mrs. Joyce Clarke took the topic. It was a very well prepared talk on human relations. Many topics were brought to our attention. The main one seemed to be a plea for help with the Sunday School—both for children to attend and for teachers; for adequate help for teaching Sunday School. Those who so devoutly give of their time feel the need for more help.

It was mentioned also that welfare and Red Cross could use more warm quilts so a tentative date was set to have a bee early in February. Large pieces of flannelette etc. could be made at home—warm flannelette sheets etc. brought—wool for tying and a real old fashioned get-together to make quilts at the church.
A wedding of one of our local girls is coming up and the U.C.W. were invited to cater.

Impressive service
The sacrament of Holy Communion was observed Jan. 13 at a very impressive service. Mr. and Mrs. George Black joined by transfer. They have lived here on the Eighth Line for some time and have participated in our various activities. They formerly were members of St. Luke's Church in Ingleton. We were pleased to accept their membership.
It was and to hear of the death of Mr. Frank Petch. He was a familiar figure to most of us.
Several relatives and friends attended the funeral of Mr. Robert Barber last week. He had reached the age of ninety-two. His late wife was the former Margaret McEnery, sister of the late Archie McEnery.

Seven steps to cut red tape

Seven steps designed to streamline applications for amendments to official plans and zoning bylaws were formed "ponderata" by councillor Ernie Sykes.

The planning advisory sub-committee. They in turn send a recommendation back to the general committee, then finally to council.
"This is streamlining?" commented Sykes. He said it was pointless to go through all this if council was going to turn an application down at the end.
Councillor Ite Morrow broke into the discussion saying the committee had made a recommendation, "if Councillor Sykes doesn't like it he should make an amendment to the minutes," he stated. He claimed business would come to a grinding halt and meetings would go on till three in the morning if every item of committee business was reshaped at council.
The mayor said he was going to take Morrow's advice and ask for an amendment or a deletion from the minutes.
Council accepted the seven-step procedure.

Churchill Presentation

By Mrs. F. MacArthur Churchill Community Church Service and Sunday School was very well attended in spite of the weather. The Youth Group of the Church sang two selections accompanied by Mike Cooper on his guitar. Mrs. Frank Thompson played for church in the absence of Mrs. D. Anderson.

The Churchill C.C. Women's group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson for their first meeting of the year on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10 with a very good attendance. President Mrs. C. Storey was in the chair. Mrs. A. Kerr gave the devotions and two readings. A business period followed when it was decided to have "Luncheon is served" to be held in May. The February meeting will be held at Mrs. Donald Anderson's home.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton and family on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allen of Willowdale, also Mr. Bob Skitch and Miss Marlene May of Toronto.

A presentation was made to Mrs. Elva Winter by Mrs. Storey and Mrs. Thompson for the help she had done while a member with our group. A reading on the Church was given by Mrs. Fosbury and Mrs. Frank Thompson gave an instrumental, these numbers were much enjoyed. Mrs. Storey assisted Mrs. Thompson in serving a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting.
