THE COOKOUT fire proves a good place to dry out children's boots, Donna Neeley discovers. The first snowmobile meet of the season for Acton Snowmobile club was well attended.

ANDY SCOTT is enthusiastic.

DOUG NEELEY warms his small hands at the cookout fire on the Johnston property.

MRS. DONNA NEELEY and Mrs. Doreen McIntyre pause for a hot drink—then back to the trails.

Jobs created

About 80 new jobs have been created in Guelph because of the energy crisis in Britain. Because of the three-day work week the British-American Tobacco Company of London has cut back production in its Southampton and Liverpool factories. Imperial Tobacco will produce cigarettes in its Guelph plant to fill the need.
