

FIFTEEN CUB PACK members of the First Eden Mills cub pack stood in a horseshoe array last Wednesday evening to participate in the invest- ment of three new members and, seen along with their charges are Akela Charlie Barnes and Bob Johns, Baloo.

Limehouse

New scout troop in news

by Mrs. A. Benton
Mr. and Mrs. W. Gustavsen flew to Ottawa to visit Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Lasko over the weekend. Their daughter, Mrs. Lasko, graduated last summer with the highest marks in the 75th and last class at Toronto Western hospital.

The annual congregational meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church was held Jan. 16 with 20 attending. Rev. P. Barrow was chairman and Mrs. Appleyard secretary for the evening.

Increases
Stanley McEnery was thanked for clearing snow from the church yard and Mrs. Bert Benton and Bill Karn for their efforts with the Sunday School. The Limehouse congregation had met their obligation to the National Development Fund having paid $980 towards same. Allocations for W. M. Gand budget are both asked to increase in 1974.

Retiring managers F. J. Brown and Lloyd McEnery were both re-elected and Donald Lindsay was appointed as an auditor with his father, replacing Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who is in poor health. Mrs. Crichton was re-appointed treasurer and Neil Benton as secretary.

Elected
Those on session include Rev. P. Barrow B.D. as moderator, with A. C. Paterson, K. C. Lindsay, Richard Appleyard, Fred J. Brown and Mrs. J. Crichton. Board of Managers are Richard Appleyard, Wm. Karn, Wilfred Kirkwood, Lloyd McEnery, Bert Benton, F. J. Brown and treasurer Mrs. Crichton. Trustees are F. J. Brown and L. McEnery. Membership stands at 60. A social half hour was held afterwards.

Scouts, cubs
The Scouts and Cubs committee report:
The first Limehouse Group Committee held their Jan. meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crawford in Georgetown. Nine members were present. Final reports were received and the calendars and the Christmas Multisale reports were also given on the Jan. District Council meeting and the craft course at Blue Springs in Dec. which was attended by Elaine and David Hannah. It was announced the new Scout Troop would begin the following Monday.

First meeting
First Limehouse Scout Troop had its first meeting in Limehouse School Mon. Jan. 14 with five boys present. They now have eight boys enrolled. The leaders are Trevor Toyne and Art Hawes, with David Hannah lending some assistance.

Two Cubs have just been enlisted. Peter Stevens and Don Casselman were present with their scarves and badges in a ceremony at which Mr. Stevens and Mrs. Casselman were present. Peter Stevens has also earned his carpenter's badge. We welcome two new boys to the Pack, Amos Arts and Brian Higgins.

Workshop
Saturday nine Cubs attended the annual Craft Workshop for 1st year cubs. It was held in St. Johns United Church in Georgetown. Each boy worked at seven different crafts—pipe cleaner figures, magnetized oopoks, leather belt pouches, popsie stick hot plates, paper figures, clothespin planes and transparencies. Freshie and cookies were served and everyone had a good time.

Sunday the Cubs had to cancel their toboggan party. It was a case of too much water and too little snow. We hope it will be held later in the season.

Sympathy
We extend sympathy to Mrs. R. H. Mitchell and Mrs. and Mrs. John Michie and family in the passing of Mr. Mitchell on Sunday evening after a lengthy illness.

Church annual meeting report

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Members of the Snow family had a supper party on Saturday night Jan. 19 at the home of Miss Lydia Snow in Burlington.

Mr. Allan Snow was home from Collingwood over the weekend, returning Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Archie Lawr has been going to the Caledon Ski Resort for her usual interesting position.

U.C.W. slate
The slate of officers of the U.C.W. this year has now been completed and are as follows: president Mrs. Eileen McEnery, vice pres. Mrs. Doreen La Rose; secy. Mrs. Evelyn Snow, treas. Mrs. Joyce Clarke.

Members of the local Orange Lodge met in the hall Tues. evening.

Annual meeting of the church was Sunday, Jan. 20. Members of the session are Fred J. Shortill, Garnet Sinclair, Rick Sales, Clarence (Bud) Snow, Debbie French and Nancy Swindlehurst. Trustees, Lloyd McLean, Bud Snow and Mrs. Norm Sinclair; board of Stewards, Norm Sinclair, Lloyd McLean, Reg. French, Karl Volmar, Emerson Clarke, Mrs. Elaine Sales, Mrs. Willa Shortill (U.C.W. Rep.), Mrs. Irene Hancock (M.M.).

Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matthews recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. Those attending were mostly guests who had attended their wedding 25 years ago from Toronto, Hespeler, Guelph, Orangeville, Mississauga, Acton and Mt. Forest. It was a happy occasion of reminiscing. Bridesmaid Miss Shirley Ramshaw, usher Mr. Sydney White and soloist Mrs. F. G. Spratt were able to attend among others to the number of 50.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews farm on one of the former Vannater farms in fact it was the home of the oldest generation of Vannaters. Alfred, Ira and Phares were the three sons. This summer the Matthews had visitors from Georgia. They were the daughters, Jane and Virginia whose father and mother were Phares Vannater and Hattie Shortill (who was a sister of the late Fred W. Shortill). Jane and Virginia also were guests of their first cousins Floyd and Edna Shortill, also their cousins Roy, Earl, and Mary (Vannater) Near.

Congratulations
Ballinafad people offer congratulations to Mr. Lloyd Lang on his being elected warden of our county. We are sure he will serve us all to the best of his ability. I was interested to read of his "rural school" education.

Ospringle

Training for 4-H

By Doris Fines
Leaders for the 4H Homemaking Clubs have been receiving instruction at training schools in preparation to starting the project Separates From Knits. Attending at Guelph were, Laurel Vlietstra as leader of Group 1 Ospringle, and Mrs. Glen Jackson assistant. Mrs. Ernest McCausland will also assist, having attended training school in Hillsburgh on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Also at Hillsburgh were, Mrs. Geo. Major, leader for Group 2 Ospringle, and Mrs. Robert Flewelling assistant. Mrs. Geo. Bradford, though not at training school and therefore not an official leader, has offered to help with this club when needed, as there is expected to be a large membership in both groups.

Nearly 92
On behalf of friends and neighbors of the community, sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce and family on the death of Mrs. Bruce's mother, Mrs. Henry Sayers, on Friday morning. Mrs. Sayers has lived with her daughter the past few years and would have reached her 92nd birthday on Saturday.

Rev. Horace Braden of Wilfred Laurier University Waterloo, was the visiting minister at Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. The subject of his sermon was Jesus Christ, Lord. He explained that Lord is something that is given, or passed on, while Despot is something taken by force.
