Finishing Furniture

BEAVER'S ready-to-finish furniture is sanded smooth, ready to paint or stain how you wish.

1. PAINTING: before starting, ensure that all surface dust has been completely removed.

2. Prime with enamel undercoat. Note: if deep colour finish is desired, tint white undercoating with a small quantity of the chosen finish colour.

3. When paint is dry, sand lightly and remove all dust.

4. Finish with beaver brand semi-gloss or gloss paint.

STAINING SECRETS:

1. Remove all surface dust.
2. Apply one coat of stain.
3. Allow to dry for 5 minutes.
4. Wipe surface in direction of grain with lint-free cloth. For deeper tones, apply second coat of stain and re-wipe.
5. Let dry overnight—apply a coat of gloss varnish.
6. Sand gloss varnish lightly with fine steel wool, sandpaper or water paper. Remove sanding dust with tack cloth.
7. Apply second coat of varnish—gloss, satin or dull.

Delegates to convention

The newly elected executive of the Acton Agricultural Society and Miss Fall Fair will be among the 120 delegates expected to attend the annual convention of the Ontario Agricultural Societies February 20-21 in Toronto's Royal York Hotel. They are president, Ken Murray; secretary-treasurer, John Rowe; ladies' president, Mrs. Vivian Smith; and Anne Lutz, Miss Acton Fair. President W. B. Wallace will open the convention. Guest speaker will be the Honorable Wm. A. Stewart, Ontario Minister of Agriculture and Food. D. Witham, president A & B fairs will address the delegates and Mrs. A. J. Edwards will bring greetings from the Ladies' section. Highlights of the convention will include two panel discussions 'How to operate a successful fair' and 'Queen of the fair competition'. There will also be a demonstration of handicrafts. The evening activities in the Canadian Room will feature a floor show starring Tommy Hunter, and introduction of the Queens of the Fairs.

No name for Ospringe 4-H

On Tues., Feb. 5 the second meeting of Ospringe 4-H club was held at the home of Mrs. Jean Jackson. They have not yet decided a name for the club, but had a few suggestions. Roll call was name a type of knit or a fiber used in knits. It was answered by all. They discussed what to do before laying the pattern. Mrs. Laurel Vlietstra demonstrated how to alter a pattern and how to cut the outfit.

Champs

Georgetown bowling lane's Golden Age team were declared Ontario provincial champions last Sunday at Scarborough. Alan Prouse also won the men's high triple. The provincials were also part of the National Golden Age Bowlers Mail-ographic championships.
