

Spills 'n thrills at Y's Men's rally

TROPHIES glittering in the sun waiting to be claimed by the winners of Sunday's Y's Men's club snowmobile races on Fairy Lake.

Area man killed in crash

A mile from his home, Elmer Fendley, 43 was killed in a head-on collision Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. His son Glenn, 15 was also injured in the crash on Highway 7 at the Limehouse Road.

Glenn was treated at hospital for injuries to his left arm and his 15-year-old friend, Keith Kees, 27 Chelvin Dr., Georgetown was treated for bruised ribs and legs.

Jack Seeler, 23 Shelley St., Georgetown driver of the other car, was taken to hospital suffering facial injuries.

Both cars, a '73 Chevelle and a '73 Grand Prix, were totally wrecked.

Mr. Fendley, Acton agent for Prudential Insurance Co. was on his way to Acton to deliver a policy and planned to drop the two boys at Acton arena.

Mr. Fendley is well known in bowling circles having bowled in various leagues during his 22 years in town. At the time of his death, he was a member of the married couples' league in Georgetown.

The Fendleys are members of St. George's Anglican Church, Georgetown and have lived on the road formerly part of Highway 7, near the Masonic Temple for the past 15 years.

Mr. Fendley is survived by his wife Shirley, son Glenn, his mother and father Mr. and Mrs. Percy Fendley of Brampton, a sister Muriel (Mrs. J. Poidevin) of Halifax and a brother Russell of Brampton.

Funeral service was held Saturday from St. George's Anglican church. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Burlington region home

The City of Burlington will soon be the new home of regional government headquarters for Halton.

That was the upshot of a discussion at a special meeting of regional council Monday.

Go back to books

Sheridan journalism student Mrs. Celia Saxon concludes her two week work experience with the Free Press today. She has written features, news stories and taken pictures as she followed the process of a weekly newspaper day by day.

Students from Sheridan are posted all over the province for the work week.

Milton and Georgetown papers also had learning reporters the past two weeks.

Evaluate students

Halton Board of Education will spend $5,000 on a program to evaluate students leaving the secondary school system in Halton Region.

The board approved a budget for that program at their meeting Thursday. Seminars will be held to obtain information and questionnaires circulated to former students.

SPEEDSTER Dan Arbic is too fast for the camera.

FLAGMAN starts the race at the lake Sunday afternoon.

Racer's Edge drivers Dan Arbic of Acton and Alan Knight from Georgetown walked off with the majority of the prizes Sunday at the Acton Y's Men's snowmobile races. Arbic took three first prizes and two seconds; Knight won three firsts and one second prize.

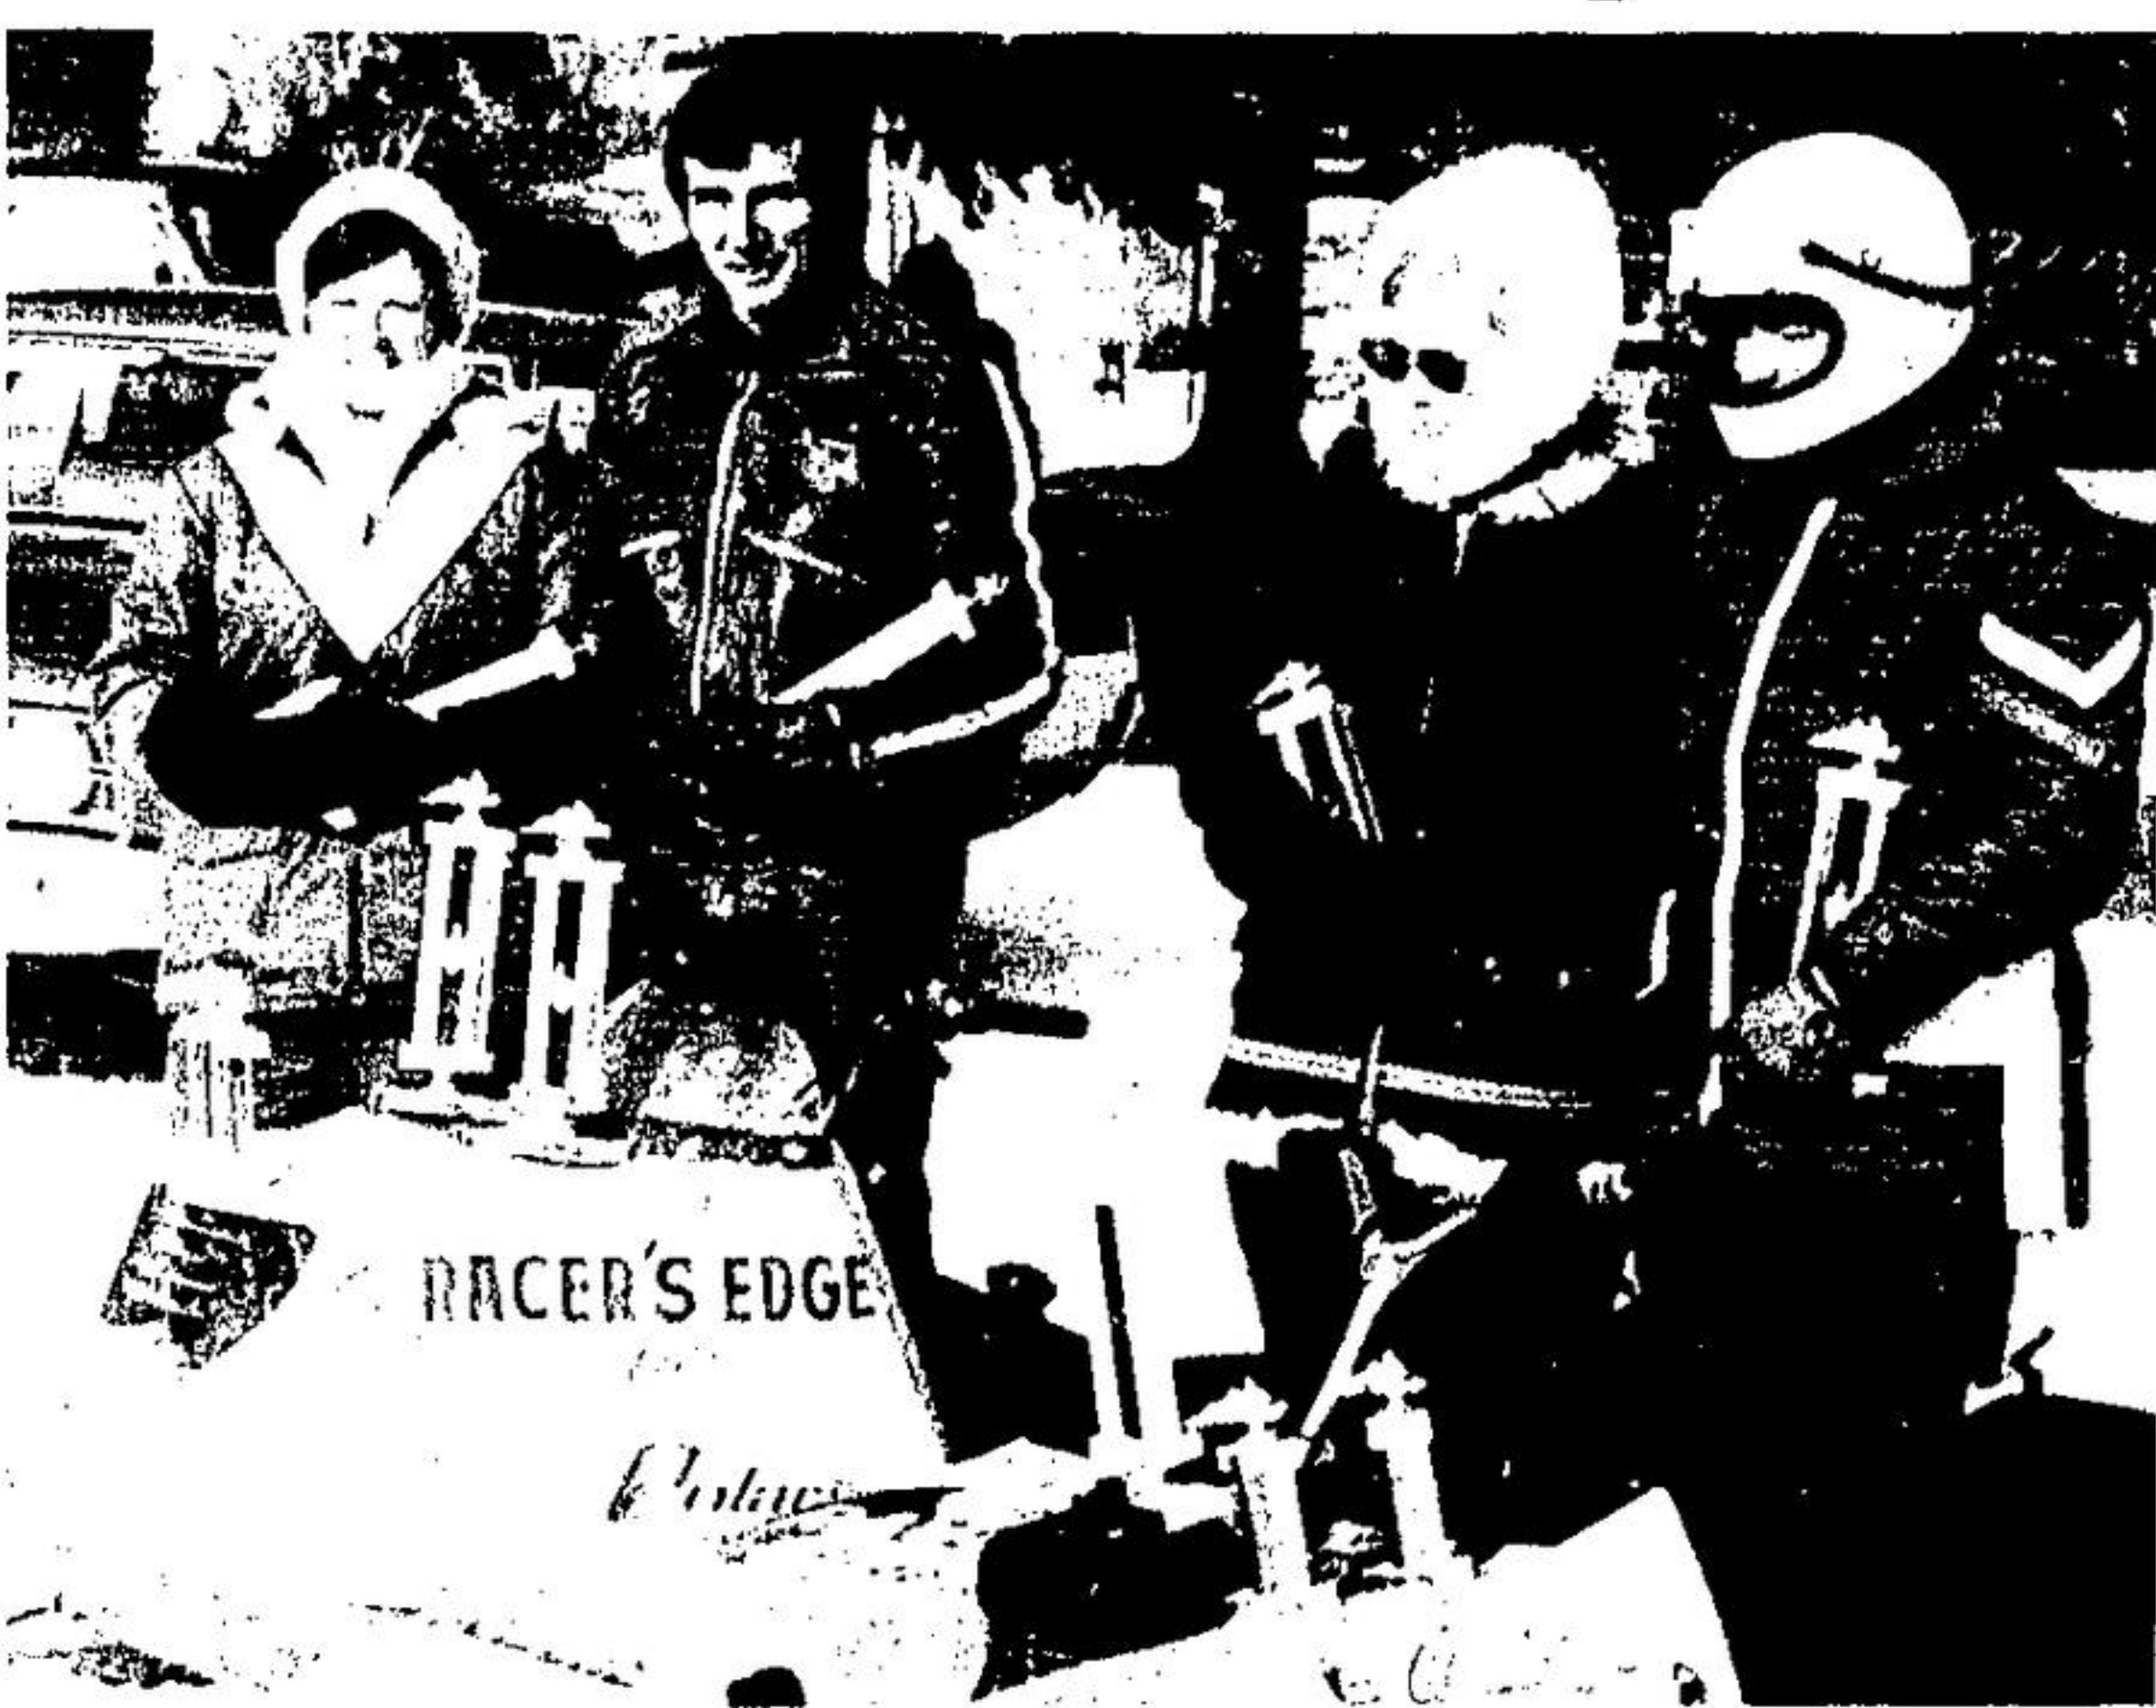

The races were originally scheduled for Feb. 3 but postponed because of warm weather. Last year the races never did take place, but Sunday's fresh snow and bright sunshine drew a large crowd of drivers and spectators to Fairy Lake for the rescheduled event. Some of the races had to be cancelled due to lack of entrants.

The first casualty in the five years of snowmobile racing in Acton occurred in the A Superstock race when Randy Upton overturned on the curve. He righted his machine, hopped back on and finished third in the race before being taken to Guelph General Hospital for 15 stitches below his knee-cap.

Randy's dad, J.N. Upton of Acton, who did the same thing to the same knee racing the same machine in Orangeville two weeks ago, said "I'm going to buy two boxes of that cereal with the free plastic snowmobiles inside so my son and I will have something to play with until our knees mend!"
