Ladies win

Acton defeated Brookville 38-22 in an exhibition ladies' basketball game at Robert Little school last Wednesday

Pat Wood and Jan Marshall paced the Acton scoring attack with 12 points apiece. Sharon Howard scored six, Betty Blain four and Sandy Lewis and Lyn Hands two Gertie Windmoller and Sue Thomson hooped eight points apiece for Brookville. Pat Buchanan netted six. Halftime score was 26-12 for Acton. The ladies host Robert Little school this Wed. and play a return match at Brookville on March 6.

Bonnette handled 57 shots in other went right between the the Acton nets.

Paid attendance at Friday night's game here was 666, targest of the season and the best Junior hockey crowd in Acton in three years. Midget Kent Kentner played a very strong game on the Acton defence and his counterparts Russ Van Fleet and John McAdam also turned in good efforts.

Art VanDerHulst, Tom Coffey and Les Kovaes scored for Bradford in the first period with Bert Osborne replying for Acton. Rick Norton and Larry Maurine notched third period Vasey goals.

Mark McCauley scored two of the three gift goals for Acton Sunday night and defenceman Rob McEachern netted the other. One of McCauley's shot caromed off the boards and went in off the Bradford goalie's skates. Charlie McRae, who along with Bert Oshorne have worked hard for Sabres in the series netted a nice goal in the third period. Coach Dave McKnight chose not to dress the three midgets for Sunday's game, saving he did not want to risk unnecessary injuries when they have their own league playoffs coming up.

Husky Doug Patten still hasn't played a game in the series and Warren Craig is out for the season with a shoulder injury.

Off-track betting. How you can help.

The Ontario Task Force on Off-Track Betting stated, in its report to the Government of Ontario in 1972, that the objectives of an off-track betting system should be to:

- suppress or, at least, reduce illegal bookmaking
- provide a service to the public
- assist the horse racing industry

· provide government revenue

The Horse Racing Industry Committee for Off-Track Betting* agrees with the Ontario

Task Force and believes that a good system of off-track betting would:

- substantially reduce illegal bookmaking on horse racing
- give the public a service that it wants
- · give Ontario the best thoroughbred and standardbred horse racing in the world

providing the provincial government with
