

Senior line performs in revised routines

Four carloads of happy people tripped to Oakville last Saturday evening to participate as guest artists with the Oakville Barbershop Chorus in their springtime show.

The Acton School of Dance group had the distinction of being the only dancers in the program and were participating with such prominent artists as the lead quartet of Ontario along with one other from Detroit.

The show was held in the Oakville collegiate and the Acton girls, consisting of Bonnie Bristow, Diane Bousfield, Barbara Pratt, Carol Pickles, Kathy Turkosz, Karen Hillman, Darlene Deshaies and Cathy Ashley, plus instructress Joyce Carpenter, performed two numbers, one a can-can, the other a dance number called Kids.

It was an exciting show to be part of, according to the Acton performers, as their dance routines were worked into the script with barber shop theme. Joyce Carpenter danced one specialty number with the actual chorus as they sang Hard Hearted Hannah.

Original line
Saturday's venture was unique for the Acton group as it was the first performance for the original senior line of the Acton School of Dance since last June. With most of the girls high school graduates scattered in several areas and involved in many vocations, the occasion served as a reunion of sorts. On the Sunday afternoon, prior to the performance, the girls had congregated in Acton for their first rehearsal in months.

According to Jack Carpenter, master of ceremonies for the show, the line had never danced better. "They were terrific," said the enthusiastic stage man who felt their performance was stimulated by their pleasure at being back together again.

After the show an "after glow" party culminated the exciting evening. Records show that the senior line-up of girls who have been dancing from 12 years to 20, incorporates a number of vocations. Bonnie Bristow is employed in Guelph, Diane Bousfield training for a nurse in Kitchener, Barbara Pratt a student at the University of Guelph, Cathy Ashley at Waterloo University and other girls continue at Acton and Georgetown high schools.

SUNDAY WAS REUNION time for nine girls of the senior line of the Acton School of Dance and, for the first time since last June, they performed together as guest artists on the springtime show of the Oakville Barbershop Chorus. Seen in the dance routine are Bonnie Bristow, Joyce Carpenter, Barbara Pratt, Cathy Ashley, Darlene Deshaies, Carol Pickles and Kathy Turkosz.

Kniteros see fabric factory

Three meetings were reported on consecutive weekly dates of March 12 to 21 for the Kniteros with the first two being held at the home of Jean Jackson and the third an innovated meeting where the members attended a trip to a Hespeler fabric factory.

At meeting number one Mrs. Laurel Vlietstra attended and demonstrated the tailors hem and how to bind. The second meeting reported another demonstration by Mrs. Vlietstra on installing a zipper and elastic. The seamstress specialist also explained the mitered corner.

A guided tour through the Hespeler factory on Mar. 21 was informative for the group after which appetites were appeased with a stop-off at the Savette store for lunch.

The Kniteros then went to a fabric store to purchase knit fabrics. It had been a worthwhile and constructive day and the members were anxious to apply their knowledge to new material purchased.

Churchill

St. Patrick program for C.C.C.W. meeting

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Churchill Community Church Sunday morning worship service and Sunday school was very well attended. Rev. A. W. Fosbury's sermon subject was "The Cross: Its Meaning to Us." The choir sang an anthem, also the senior group gave a couple of numbers accompanied by Mr. Mike Cooper on his guitar.

The Churchill Community Church Women's group met Wednesday evening, March 20 at the home of Mrs. E. Winter in Guelph for their monthly meeting. Mrs. C. Storey, president, opened the meeting and read a poem - "What Is A Friend," Mrs. Fosbury read scripture and Mrs. Storey read and remarked on "Four Freedoms."

The business part of the program was taken by Mrs. Storey. A paper drive in April, date later, and this week is work week on quilts at the church for the ladies.

A St. Patrick's Day program followed, with poems and songs accompanied on guitar by Mrs. Frank Thompson. The meeting was over early and all present enjoyed a nice visit with Elva, followed by a delicious lunch provided by the hostess, our former member Elva Winter. Mrs. W. Thompson assisted in serving and Mrs. Storey thanked Mrs. Winter for holding the meeting and the lovely lunch. The April meeting will be held at Mrs. Frank Thompson's home in Acton.

Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Down and family of Sunderland visited last Thursday at her sister's home with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr and children.

Mrs. Frank Graff of Sturgeon Falls is visiting with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. William Dobbie.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson of Powassan visited at her brother's home with Mr. and Mrs. William Dobbie over the weekend.

Dr. Lois Cameron of Fergus visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr, Jeffrey and Christine.

Qualifies as leader

In a ceremony at Bramalea, Lynne Simioni graduated from the White Oaks Cadet Company, fully qualified as a leader in the guiding movement.

A grade 13 student at h.s., Lynne is assistant Guide leader here now working with Mrs. Ginger.

Although there are about a dozen girls taking the course, Lynne was the only one to graduate this week. Leader

Mrs. Nagles said that Lynne had "set a high standard for future graduates." She never missed a meeting or failed an assignment.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simioni, and Guide leaders Mrs. Ginger and Mrs. Strongtharm attended the ceremony.

The course takes two years, and she went to Bramalea once a month.

She was presented with a unique diploma, beautifully embroidered on canvas by one of the girls in the company.

Acton high notes

By Janice Gibson

On March 26, a hairdresser from Bruno's School of Hairdressing in Hamilton was here. Anyone who was interested was invited during periods 3 and 4 to see a demonstration of some of the many aspects of hairdressing.

Thursday, Mr. Black is taking his Grade 10 students to the American Motors Plant in Brampton. The students get a chance to talk to the employees and get a first hand look at the automobile manufacturing industry.

Next Tuesday, Mrs. Burns is taking some Year 3, 4 and 5 students to Conestoga College. Many students showed an interest in the proposed trip and sheets were distributed so that interest areas could be indicated.

Wednesday, April 3, a group of students are going to the St. Lawrence Centre. The play, by Bertolt Brecht, a German playwright, is "The Good Woman of Setzuan" and is of special interest in the Advanced Year 5 English course. Brecht is the founder of the Theatre of the Absurd, part of which will be studied in that course.

Library elects chairman

The first library board for the new town of Halton Hills, which operates the Acton and Georgetown libraries and the Esquering book-drop in Stewarttown, elected Ben Boyle of Georgetown as chairman.

New name for office

It may take some time for ratepayers to use the new name, but from now on the "town office" on Mill St. will be known as the Halton Hills municipal business office.

Fred New of Acton was chosen treasurer and Mrs. Dawn Thompson as secretary.

The former town offices in Georgetown will be known as Halton Hills treasury building. The Esquering municipal building on the seventh line will be Halton Hills municipal building.

Other members of the board are George Lee of Acton, Mrs. Ruth Wilson and Mrs. Joan Lister of Esquering, and Mrs. Cathy Peregó and Mrs. Anne Currie of Georgetown.

Control grasses and broadleaves in corn, and minimize carryover:

Lasso Plus atrazine

Lasso plus atrazine tank mix controls yellow and green foxtail, common ragweed, pigweed, lambsquarters and many more grasses and broadleaves; reduces competition from hard-to-control weeds like cocklebur and buttonweed. You minimize carryover possibilities because Lasso by itself leaves no carryover, and you use less atrazine in the tank mix.

A point by point primer on how to lose your driver's licence.

It's actually quite simple. All you do is accumulate fifteen demerit points and lose your licence for thirty days. Do it again and lose your licence for six months.

In this province, it definitely pays a driver to score a big fat zero. Ontario's demerit point system is designed to convince the poor driver to drive properly. Drivers who do not improve are then taken from the road because they're a menace to pedestrians and to other drivers.

But the system is not at all unjust. It's aimed at telling the driver where he's gone wrong and giving him plenty of time to correct his faults.

For instance, When you've accumulated six points, you'll be notified and urged to improve your driving.

When you've got nine, you'll probably be asked to attend a private interview and re-do your driving test.

At fifteen points, you'll lose your licence for thirty days and drop back to seven points. Get fifteen again and you won't drive for six months.

However, your record won't be indelibly marked. If you drive for two years without a traffic conviction your points are erased and your slate is clean.

How Demerit Points Accumulate:

7 points	Failing to remain at scene of an accident (Highway Traffic Act)
6 points	Careless driving Exceeding speed limit by 20 m.p.h. or more
5 points	Driver of bus failing to stop at unprotected railway crossings
4 points	Exceeding the speed limit by 20 to 29 m.p.h. Failing to stop for school bus following too closely
3 points	Exceeding speed limit by 11-19 m.p.h. Driving through around or over railway crossing Failing to yield right of way Failing to obey a stop sign, signal, light or railway crossing signal
2 points	Failing to obey directions of police officer Failing to report an accident to a police officer Improper passing Crowding driver's seat Wrong way on one-way street or highway Failing to obey signs other than those mentioned above Podestrian cross-over Failing to share road Improper right turn Improper left turn Failing to signal Unnecessary slow driving

The whole point is to score nothing, keep your record clean and drive happily ever after.
