 A new high single for the ladies was posted last Tuesday evening. Janet Storey, bowling in the Lakeview Centre Mixed League, rolled a hot 375—much to the disappointment of the gathered spectators. Jim Timceck and Ray Toth checked out and did not do the streaking act which they vowed to do if their team, the Acton Meadows did not win their three games last Thursday in the Major League. The team won the first two but lost the third and Timceck and Toth made a hearty departure from the lanes fully clothed. Maybe when the warmer weather, if and when it comes, the lady will save face and take a skinky dip in Fairy Lake—some comments on the National Classified. 40,000 people (Continued on Page 12)
