With father and son game

Novices wind season

Acton povices will wind up their first bockey season with a tather and son game at the community centre tonight (Wednesday). Mothers will coach and act as officials.

Novices, coached by John Kavanagh, Randy Weldon and Ted Harmer finished second in a four team league with Hillsburgh, Erin and Grand Valley, ousted Erin two straight 8-0 and 4-1 in the semi-finals, but were beaten by Grand Valley for the championship in four games 3-1, 1-0, 2-3 and 4-3.

The Acton team won the "B" series consolation trophy at the Plattsville Little Brave tournament, bowing to Beamsville 7-1 in the first round, then beating Queensmount Kavalters of Kitchener 3-2 and South London 7-2.

The team finished with an overall record of 20 wins, nine losses and one tie. Ken Kavanagh of Acton won the regular season scoring championship with 39 points. Jim Richard was fifth with 20, Barry Diggins sixth with 18 and Brian Canary tied for tenth with 14.
