

Brian Larsen makes all-star cage squad

Centre Brian Larsen of the Acton High Redmen has been named to the first all-star team in the Halton East high school midget basketball league.

Larsen scored 153 points in 12 league games for a 12.7 average which was fifth best in the league. The 153 points represented 42 percent of the total of 365 scored by the Redmen who finished last in the seven team league and failed to win a game.

League scoring champ Tom Heslip of Oakville Blacklock, teammates Don Gambacourt and Chris Heaver and Dave Dempster of White Oaks also made the first all-star team. Second team included John Siriski and Tony Smith of Oakville Perdue, Peter Senov of Oakville-Trafalgar, Tony Novielli of Oakville Queen Elizabeth and Horace Saunders.

A Grade 9 student at Acton High, Brian was second high scorer on the Robert Little Viking team which was Halton County elementary school finalists last year.

40 teams next year

Juvenile teams from Lindsay, Etobicoke and Unionville won their divisions at the Tri-County Juvenile Tournament played in Milton over Easter Week.

Lindsay, accepted into tourney play late when Trenton couldn't make it, beat out Welland 3-2 in a hard fought championship game Saturday night.

A 40-team field using both Milton arenas is seen for next year by Tri-County Juvenile Tournament Secretary-Treasurer Larry Arble. Arble would like to see twice the number of "A" teams competing at the tournament and has hopes provisions can be made for "D" teams.

This year's tourney was termed successful by Arble who indicated a rise of 10 per cent in gate receipts over the past year.

The tournament has been backed by the Tri-County league and played in Milton over Easter week for 16 years. Director of the tournament again this year was Milton OHA representative Bill Rowney.

Two Georgetown men are off on trade missions to different parts of the world.

Eugene Schattl, Sixth Line, Limehouse, manager of Dixie Tool and Hydraulics in Islington is in Japan, while Robert Morgan, product manager geophysics of Varian Associates, is off to Poland and Romania.

SHARON DWYER is leaving her duties as professional for Georgetown Figure Skating Club, so the club wanted her to know they were sorry to see her go. Here Carol Snow, Janet Shepherd and Lisa Smith present her with gifts, at the annual family skating party which winds up the season.

MELTED SNOW suddenly reveals mud and debris in some of our favorite places. The vistas at the park are marred with post-winter branches and garbage, due for seasonal clean-up soon.

Support given retarded teams

Financial support for 30 students from schools for the mentally retarded in Halton have been assured by Halton Board of Education in the students' efforts to take part in the 1974 Special Olympics. The olympics are planned for Winnipeg June 13 to June 16.

Mayfield school has a 16 person team and Bruce Lyn and Sunshine schools will combine to send a 14 person team to the event.

Apparently all but $1,700 of the $5,100 has been raised from sources outside of the board. The board agreed to pick up the $1,700 if necessary.

During discussion of a progress report from the committee on schools for the trainable retarded, the board agreed to refer a recommendation to its executive committee that would see retarded children wear seat belts while they are riding school buses.

Also referred to the executive committee was a suggestion that two portable classrooms be provided.

Sabres lose 13

Five Georgetown minor hockey grads, Brian Beaumont, Gene Inglis, Bob Inglis, Bert Osborne and John Sheppard are among 13 of 20 Acton Sabre signed players who have completed their junior hockey eligibility.

Sabres who recently lost four straight to Bradford in the Central Ontario Junior "C" group finals also lose Gary Turkosz, Pete Morrison and Dale Fisher of Acton, Rob McEachern and Gary Saul of Hillsburgh, Warren Craig and Doug Patten of Chinguacousy and Mark McCauley of Brampton to overtime.

RICK TOMKINSON

Tomkinson tops goalies Central loop

Rick Tomkinson of Georgetown had the best individual goals against average of any goalie in Central Ontario Junior "C" league this season according to final statistics released recently by league statistician Don McLean of Alliston.

Tomkinson played 19 games—plus in goal for the third place Acton Sabres and gave up only 66 goals for a 3.30 goals against average. Tomkinson, backup goalie Rick Bonnette and midget Ray Dunbar, who allowed just one goal in the one period he played combined for a team average of 3.70. Only John Muizelaar and Bernie Killoran of the first place Bradford Vaseys beat that with a mark of 3.53.

Rick has two years of junior hockey eligibility remaining.

Stayner in Jr. D finals

Stayner Siskins, second place finishers in the Central Ontario league and Belmont split the first two games of their best of seven OHA Junior "D" championship series.

Simcoe and Cobourg are tied a game apiece in their best of seven OHA Junior "C" final series.

Elora bants bow in finals

Elora bantams carried the Waterloo-Wellington league banner right to the OHA Bantam "DD" finals before bowing to Maple four games to one with one game tied. Elora finished third behind Fergus and Orangeville in the seven team league.
