Spring concert fire in news

By Doris Flies
A well packed auditorium greeted the pupils and teachers of Osprige Public School Tuesday evening, as they presented their spring concert. The Jr. and Sr. choirs, as well as other musical arrangements, were well received by the audience. Folk dancing and gymnastics by Grade 1 pupils were well done as they danced or tumbled around the stage.

Future stars could be foreseen in the performers of the short plays or skits. Recitations, Irish dances, and drills rounded out the evening, and all were a credit to the teachers.

Ballet
The Grade 7 pupils attended the ballet in Guelph at Ross Hall this week, along with all the other grade 7's of the township.

On Wednesday, Constable Kidd of Guelph, visited the school and gave a presentation of bicycle safety to grades 3 to 8. He answered questions from the pupils after the program.

Fire
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beadell, on the 2nd line at the corner of 22 sideroad, was completely destroyed by fire on Friday, when some grease exploded on the stove. All their furniture and belongings went up in smoke, with nothing saved. Some of the neighbors, Mrs. Jim Taylor, Mrs. Gerald Boyes, and Mrs. Kent Peters are organizing a drive to assist them. Any donations of clothing or funds will be gratefully appreciated.

Mr. Allan Walma was soloist at the Easter service of Burns Presbyterian Church, singing This Joyful Eastertide. Rev. G. Rennie of Acton was visiting minister. The theme of his sermon was Believe and Live.

Ladies' Aid
The Crucifixion was the subject of the devotional taken by Mrs. Byron Bruce, at the April meeting of Osprige Ladies Aid.

There were eight members present at the home of Mrs. Gordon Aitken. The roll call was answered with an Easter verse.

Mrs. Ward Bruce was in charge of the program, which consisted of a piano instrumental by Mrs. Gordon Aitken, and a solo by Mrs. Byron Bruce accompanied by Mrs. Aitken.

Plans were made for the beef supper to be held at the

Limehouse

Journey to sugar bush

by Mrs. A. Benton
Easter was celebrated with a communion service on Sunday evening when a number of visitors attended and a social hour followed.

Last week local school children enjoyed a trip to Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's sugar bush on the fifth line, and pancakes and maple syrup at the school later. Another teacher helped her class make hot cross buns at school. Workmen are quite busy at the new addition when weather permits.

Youth groups predict a busy month ahead with a euchre, a bazaar and a banquet already planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smethurst and their triplet grandsons, with their mother all of Barrie called on Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Lasko of Ottawa were home with her parents and family, the Gustafson's for Easter.

A new crest design is being sought for the new town of Milton, and there are 38 entries in.

Ebenezer

Flowers, music relate to Easter

by Mrs. Ron McLean
Mrs. John Kitching's many friends wish her a speedy recovery. She is a patient at Guelph General.

Birthdays greetings to Denise Dalgle and Jimmy McLean.

Flowers and special music marked the observance of Easter at Ebenezer.

Rev. Bob Kallil chose as his subject, "Easter Means" . . . "I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor things present, nor things to come, . . . nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God."

Mr. Kallil showed a potato, which, he said, might be considered lacking in sex appeal. It is buried in the ground and forgotten. But with its life potential, given suitable conditions, its latent energy will drive it up through the ground.

Jesus must have been a tremendously exciting human being. Then the whole dream was shattered.

After the crucifixion, the disciples became convinced that Jesus was alive. The essence of religion is profound.

When you discover that God is real, the details of theology are not important. God is

Churchill

Church in full array Easter Sunday service

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Easter Sunday morning worship service was very well attended at Churchill Church when it was in full array of Easter lilies and spring flowers. Rev. A. W. Fosbury's message was very much in keeping with the Easter message - The Place Where The Lord Lay. A full choir was present and sang the anthem The Mighty Triumph with the orchestra in attendance.

Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Fosbury are happy to report having their family all home at Easter Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Don Fosbury; Mr. and Mrs. Caruso, Jeff, Carolyn and Barbara, all of Brampton; on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cross, Craig and baby Brett, also Dr. C. E. and Mrs. Bayliss, Melinda and baby Julie May visited at the parental home.

Easter Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Denny and family were Mrs. Susie Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Patterson and Leslie of Guelph, and Mr. and Rudy Schindel and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton visited with Mr. and Mrs. David Pinkney and family at Alvinston on Saturday.

Completed studies
Miss Debbie Hamilton has completed her studies at Guelph University towards her Bachelor of Science degree. Congratulations from your Churchill friends, Debbie.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, David and Julian attended a family gathering at her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Julian's home in Brampton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAdam and daughter Jenny visited last week with her mother and family in Victoria, B.C.
