Sparks start blaze

Sparks from a welding torch touched off a fire in Ballinacree Sunday afternoon, which left Mr. and Mrs. M. Eyre and one child homeless.

The house trailer with attached room, on the Seventh Line, was burned to the ground with loss estimated at $8,000.

When Georgetown firemen arrived they were greeted by two exploding propane gas tanks. Sparks from the fire started the roof of the nearby farm house blazing, but firemen put it out and contained it to a small part of the roof.

The farmhouse is owned by Guido Vecchi of Downsview.
