Tree planting in report

by Mrs. A. Benton
 Nineteen Cubs showed up on April 27, to plant trees in their Trees for Canada project. Each boy was allowed to plant 75 trees in the Silvercreek Conservation area on the 8th line. It was a beautiful day and the work was completed by 10.30 at which time the boys had their lunches.

and their role today in relation to scouting. Following a coffee break the Mississauga group led a very enjoyable closing campfire.

Multisale
 A very successful Multisale was held Saturday in the Hall by the Group Committee and Local Association. Winner of the food sampler draw was Ellen Weaver of Owen Sound and the wallet was won by Linda Thomson. (Contributed by Mrs. Hannah)

W.I. Meeting
 The W.I. met in the Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thursday evening with 10 regular W.I. women, six visitors and five 4-H girls attending. In the absence of the president, Mrs. T. N. Anderson, 1st vice-pres. took the chair, opening by reading, "Take a Moment to look Upright, and all stood to repeat the 4-H Pledge.

Roll call was answered by "A fashion tip that applies to me," and Mrs. F. T. C. Brown expanded the motto "Personality is a favorable asset," using our Queen, the Queen mother and our new Gov. Gen., as examples.

Donations
 Delegates to District Annual were advised to uphold a resolution put forward by Nelson W.I., that the identity of small hamlets be retained by signs or plaques. As well as wish to have the various road signs replaced. Ten dollars was voted to the North Halton Association for Creative and Performing Arts.

Leader of several recent 4-H clubs, as well as a five-year leader Mrs. Anderson, presented a silver dollar for each project completed, assisted by past president Mrs. Brown and Sec'y-treas.

Mrs. Benton. The club girls displayed well-kept record books, some garments and accessories. Mrs. W. Kirkwood is the present club leader.

Mrs. Davies, convener of Family and Consumer Affairs, called the other conveners for their regular items, Miss Debbie Harlow for current events, and she read a paper on mental health. Public relations officer, Mrs. Roughley, chastised local children for the dangerous practice of breaking glass on the roads, and others for littering the road with garbage.

Judging
 Mrs. J. Crichton was judge of bread and candy, assisted by Mrs. N. Devereaux. Mrs. Crichton explained her reasons for giving Mrs. Roughley first for white bread and Mrs. Anderson first for Maple Cream. These two will have entries in the competition at District Annual on May 22 at Hillcrest Church.

Mrs. Roughley played for The Queen in closing. Mrs. Anderson, social convener served the contest items, cheeses, jams and tea for a pleasant half hour afterwards.

Illnesses
 We hope for a good recovery for Mrs. A. C. Patterson, who had a cataract removed last Tues. in Guelph returning home on Sunday.

We also wish improvement for Mrs. Robert Lindsay who is again in hospital in Guelph. Also better health for Mrs. Gishy who went to hospital late Sat. evening. Mr. Herbert Sinclair visited the Patterson's on Friday, reporting a pleasant winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson mark 60th anniversary

Their 60th wedding anniversary was celebrated Sunday afternoon, April 21, by Joshua and Ethel Thompson at the home of their son Bill, R.R. 2, Acton. Most of their family of 10 children and grandchildren gathered with friends to commemorate the milestone.

Wellington Terrace in Elora. Mr. Thompson, who is now 91 years of age, was in good health until just a few years ago.

There was an anniversary party for them Thursday at Wellington Terrace when friends there extended their congratulations.

Family here
 Sunday's celebration was primarily a family get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's ten living children are Ray, Acton; Emily (Mrs. Charlie Plouffe) Ballinafad; William, Acton; Charles, Acton; Frank, Acton; Leonard, Guelph district; Margaret (Mrs. Harold Robson) Hornby; Doris (Mrs. Albert Cox) R.R. 2 Acton; Edith (Mrs. George Elliott) Guelph and Fred, Guelph.

Joshua Thompson and Ethel Naylor knew each other in the same Yorkshire town before their families both moved to Canada. His family came to Georgetown and hers to Waterloo, but they met again and were married in Georgetown on April 18, 1914. They farmed in the Georgetown district first and came to Acton area in 1920.

60th WEDDING anniversary was observed by Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thompson. They farmed in the area for many years.
