Dragway opens on Victoria Day

Toronto International Dragway on the Fifth Line, north of Highway 7 between Acton and Georgetown opens for its fifth season Monday, May 20, Victoria Day.

E.T. (elimination-time) racing will be featured on opening day. Gates open at 12 noon, time trials begin at 1 and showtime is 2.30.

Dragway owner Tom Reed said this week he is hopeful of getting new people involved in drag racing this summer. He hopes to have a registration program for new drivers drawn up soon. "We want to bring the young people off the streets and get them out where they can really enjoy themselves," he explained. Prize money is up for grabs in E.T. racing. Racing will also be held every Wednesday and Friday nights with gates opening at 5.30, time trials from 6.30 until 8 and showtime at 8.30. Toronto International Dragway will also present its usual special shows throughout the summer. Arrangements are being made for these shows now.

Raiders may get $500

If Halton Hills council goes along with the general administration committee, Georgetown Raiders hockey team will get half what they asked for last week. The committee said they would okay $500 to cover the Raider's travelling expenses to Ottawa, but wouldn't go for any money for jackets or a banquet.

Coop to coach midget team

Ex-Ram junior Mike Cooper has signed to coach the Acton Rotary midget lacrosse team which will play again this year in the "B" division of the Central League. Rotarians, who made it to the OMLA midget "D" semifinals last year are expected to begin play the final week of May.

Three Acton soccer teams in Halton-Peel league

By John Toebes
The Acton Minor Soccer Association will have a rep team in the Halton-Peel bantam league for the first time this summer. Frank Robinson will coach the team and Noel Weir will serve as manager.

Selected to play for the Acton bantams in nine team Halton-Peel league are Ford Alton, Ricky Holmes, Nathan Fields, David Mills, David Drinkwater, Lee Robinson, Mike Mitchell, Ray Dunbar, Robin Incoe, Kevin Weir, Jim Turnbull and John Smith.

Teams from Acton, Georgetown, Brampton, Oakville, Burlington, Dixie, and Dundas and two teams from Chinguacousy will play 16 game schedule, meeting each of their opponents on a home and home basis.

Fred Blaine will coach and Collin Ager manage the Acton peewee team which will play in a five team league with Brampton, Chinguacousy, Oakville and Burlington. These teams will also play a 16 game schedule.

Players selected for the peewee team are, Gordie

Bruce, Bob Hudson, Bob Feenstra, Kevin Meddock, Peter Luty, Charlie Kinal, Ross Renne, Wade Vickery, Henry Kroezen, Anthony Quinn, Jim Allonby, Jeff Shields and Scott Malcolm.

Acton mosquitoes will play in a six team league with Georgetown, Brampton, Chinguacousy, Oakville and Burlington. This league has a 15 game schedule.

Mosquito players are John Semene, Warren Hawthorne, Mark Sawden, Robert Allerlerie, Rick Gooyers, Neil McIninn, Joe

Carter, Gary Lumbers, Steve Muckle, Chris Hudson, Don Buchanan, Allan Kleindelters, David DeVries, Martin Collerton, Mark Staley and David Anderson. D. Jenkinson is coach of the mosquito team and Sandy Hudson manager. The AMSA has decided not to enter teams in the Halton-Peel squirt and atom divisions. Acton hopes to field these two teams again in 1975 perhaps in a new "B" league with Fergus, Orangeville, Hillsburg and Milton. Good luck to all players and coaches.

The Acton Free Press, Wed., May 15, 1974 5

YBC Supervisor Sylvia Mages presents the championship trophy to winning bantam coach Karen Cole and captain Lynda Knight, while the Octopus Kevin Archibald, Steven McDonald, Lynn Phillips, Donna Schipper and Marlene Rocher proudly look on.
