

Brookville whips Eden

Brookville Blues 13 and under girls softball team whipped Eden Mills 4-9 in their Tri-county league opener last week, then dropped their second contest 27-9 to Hillsburg who scored 12 runs in one inning.

A second 13 and under girls team, the Golds made up mostly of first year players up from the 10 and under team lost their first game to Puslinch 5-7.

Jackie Dennis started pitching for the Blues against Eden Mills and was relieved by Penny McMillan. As the score indicates, Brookville's hitting was outstanding. Jackie Dennis hurled the whole game against Hillsburg.

Brookville squirt Tigers whipped the squirt Lions 40-9 in their first game Friday night.

Atoms tie

Omagh outscored Acton peewee girls 21-13 in the first game of the Halton Rural Minor Softball league schedule here Monday night.

Atom boys battled their Omagh visitors to a 3-3 tie.

Forbes, Popiel Junior "A" draftees

The hockey future of two 17 year old Georgetown boys brightened considerably last Thursday when they were selected in the annual OHA Major Junior "A" draft of overage midgets.

Defenceman Mike Forbes was chosen in the second round by the Kingston

Canadiens and winger Dean Popiel was a seventh round choice of the London Knights. Both boys graduated from the 1972-73 OHA Major Midget "AA" finalist Georgetown Sunny Acres' Farm team to star this season with the Bramalea Blues who won the Metro Junior "B" championship and were OHA Junior

"B" runners-up. Ron Twiss of the Milton junior Flyers was picked by Peterborough and Eden Mills native Gary Barden, who played his atom, peewee and bantam hockey in Acton was taken by Cornwall off the Guelph major midget team.

Oakville junior Blades and Oakville midgets also had several players selected. Draft selection of Forbes and Popiel brings to more than 20 the number of Georgetown minor hockey grads who have gone in the draft in the last 12 years.

Villagers win opener

A seventh inning double from the bat of shortstop Wade Bekar helped the Campbellville Intermediate baseballers to a 4-1 win over the Cambridge Pirates Sunday afternoon in Campbellville. It was the Intermediate's season opener.

Campbellville Intermediate baseballers won their second game in two days with an overpowering 13-1 win over hometown Dundas Monday night.

The villagers pounded four Dundas hurlers for 16 hits while Campbellville pitcher Wayne Emms limited the opposition to three scattered hits. Emms recorded 16 strike outs.

Campbellville jumped to a

4-0 first inning lead — catcher Rick Mitchell tapped out a single, Dundas committed two errors, Wade Bekar singled and Loris Faggion doubled.

Wet grounds

Wet playing grounds forced the cancellation of the Milton Cricket Club's home opener against Oakville Milton's OSD grounds Saturday afternoon.

The Milton team will host Hamilton Saturday.

Minor hockey

Milton Minor Hockey Association is $2,384.69 in the black as of April 30 association treasurer Harold Ferguson revealed at the MMHA annual meeting last Monday night.

Player registrations netted the MMHA $11,328.20 while house league and two rep sponsors contributed $7,978.20 to minor hockey.

The possibility of a coach co-ordinator was proposed at the Milton Minor Hockey Association annual meeting at Martin St. school Monday night.

Form men's boxla loop

A men's recreational lacrosse league is being formed to play games at the community centre Tuesday nights at 9:30 following roller skating.

Organizer Dave Cooksley told the Free Press this week that any men interested in playing recreational lacrosse need only show up with a stick, gloves and running shoes next Tuesday night, May 28 at 9:30. There is no registration fee.

Selects debut successful

Brookville Selects made a successful debut in the Southern Ontario Junior Ladies Fastball League, outscoring Brantford Jerbans 11-4 at Morrison Monday night.

Sue Thomson hurled all nine innings for Brookville. She was aided by a pair of double plays pulled off by her teammates.

Shortstop Bev Wilson caught a low-lying drive and caught the runner off base on one play and Cathy McLeod made the same double play from her right field position.

Brantford used three pitchers in an effort to stop Brookville hitters.

Brookville will play host to Oakville CYC's at Badenoch diamond tonight (Wednesday) at 9.
