Notes from Acton High

By Janice Gibson
Open House '74 at Acton High can only be considered as a great success.

Approximately 200 to 300 people visited the school to see the many displays set up.

These included a mini art show, a presentation of films and slides done by students, and numerous others. After having a good look around you could stop off at the cafeteria and for only 75c you had your choice of two items from the French cafe. On the menu were crepe Suzette, waffles, pea soup, and quiche Lorraine, all delicious; and for your thirst fruit punch was supplied. Thanks for your attendance, it has certainly made all the hard work worthwhile.

Student council

This Thursday, the student council candidates for next year's council will make their speeches. All this week, campaigning is being done. Candidates for the positions are as follows: for president, Yvette Letoy and Dan McTavish; vice-president, Steve Buchanan (by acclamation); secretary, Maureen Gerth and Shirley Mason; and treasurer, Les Kidd and Ron Moore. Elections will take place on Friday, May 24.

To Orangeville

This Friday the Environmental Science 410 class take another trip. This time the group is going to Orangeville for the weekend.
