Lose four

Opposition rocks Sox

Rockwood Red Sox record stands at four losses in four games after a week of play in the Intercity softball league. In a home game Tuesday night Guelph Ingram nipped the Sox 4-3. John Salmon pitched to the fifth inning giving up a pair of hits and two walks before Jacques Paquette was called in for relief.

Paquette gave up only one hit and struck out eight batters. Sox travelled to Waterloo

Thursday night and came away with a 7-3 loss. Rockwood pitcher John Thatcher gave up four hits and four walks in one and two thirds innings. Relief hurler Bob Shaw struck out six Waterloo batters allowing only one hit.

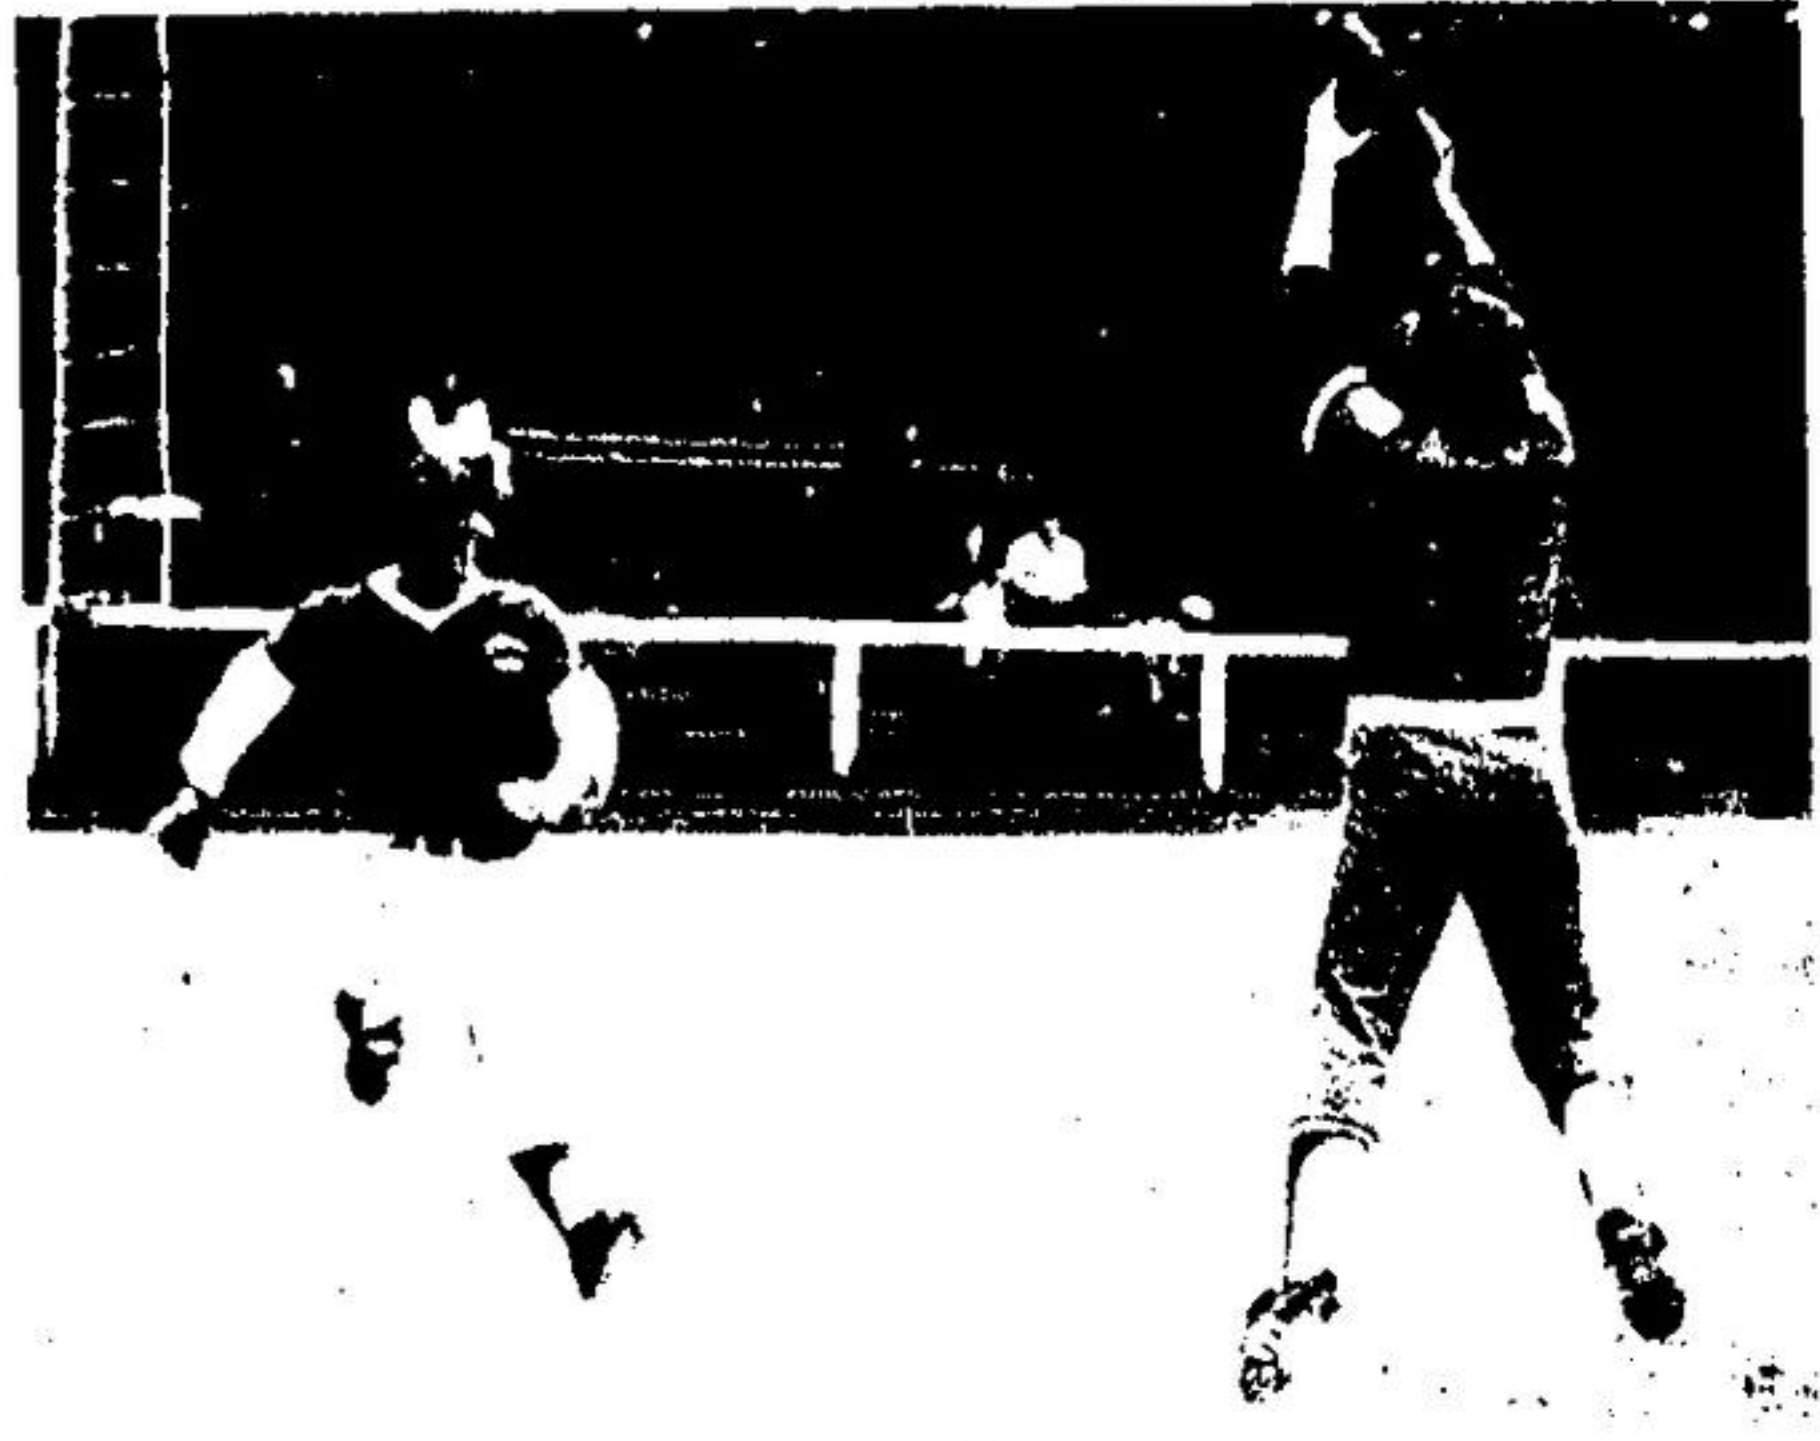

Fanned Norm Beattie clipped out two of Rockwood's five hits. Waterloo CHYMs pitcher Doug Neels fanned 11 batters. Dan Arbie smashed a ninth inning homerun to tie a Friday night game in Hespeler but the hometowners came back in the bottom of the inning to take a 5-4 win. Sox pitcher Paquette allowed six hits but struck out 11. Arbie and Harry Barber shared four of Rockwood's six hits.

Hespeler pitcher Jake New fanned 12. Back home against the CHYMs Rockwood fought back in the late innings to load the bases with a 7-6 score. A Waterloo double play snuffed out the Sox rally.

Share loss Salmon and Paquette shared the Rockwood loss with Waterloo splitting the pitching duties between John Deitrich, Doug Stevens and Gerry Hopecraft.

Waterloo scored their seven runs with 15 hits and two walks. Sox walked four times and placed six hits including an eighth inning Arbie triple. Sox play tonight in Stratford Friday in Guelph and will host Stratford Sunday evening.

MAKING THE PUT OUT Waterloo CHYM first baseman reaches for the infield throw and stomps the bag as the Rockwood Red Sox runner approaches. Sox lost the Sunday night match 6-5 finishing the ninth inning with bases loaded.

Pee wees win pair

By John Torbes
Acton Pee Wees won two games this week after losing the opener.

Both away games, Acton handed Burlington a 9-1 set back then stung Brampton 3-1 Saturday morning.

Minor Misquitos came up with two wins in the first two games of the season with a 4-2 victory over Georgetown and a 4-1 win over Oakville.

Gary Lumbers counted all the Acton goals while Rick Cooyers turned in a good game for Acton.

Acton Bantams were 4-1 losers in their league opener against Georgetown. Robin Inscoc scored the Acton goal.

A 14-legged WHAT? A tough squeeze - but the gym mat got back inside the Robert Little school.
