

Kim hits bant girls to win over Glen

Paced by the hitting of Kim Van der Eyken Acton bantam girls knocked Glen Williams 7-2 in Acton Wednesday.

Kim hit four times including a homer to deep centre field. Susan Lehn and Heather McEachern contributed three hits each with Lisa Near adding a pair and singles going to Karen Van der Eyken, Debbie Brown and Lynn Fisher.

Heather McEachern pitched a strong game giving up only 11 hits while catcher Susan Lehn and third sacker Kim McEachern worked together to foil baserunners.

Bantams play against Hornby tonight (Wednesday) at 8:45.

WATCHING THE BALL drift into the goal Raiders netminder Martin Collerton and defender Mark Staley are helpless. The goal was scored by Anthony Quinn who led the AJ's to a big win over the Raiders in Pee Wee/Mosquito House League action at the High School Monday night.

Acton win, tie

Acton atoms thumped Hornby 19-9 in HRSA action Monday night then played to a 2-2 tie with Glen Williams Saturday.

Bruce Shannon led the Acton squad through the five inning Glen game striking out 13 batters. Pitcher Shannon finished the last three innings of the Hornby game striking out seven.

Atoms take on unbeaten Lowville Monday night.

ON YOUR MARK! Debbie James leads the line-up and they're ready to go.

Chicks win

Acton Chicks girls' lacrosse team thumped Shelburne for a 2-1 loss in Acton Thursday night.

Chicks J. Denny and P. Kelly scored.

Exaggeration

The sports reporter exaggerated somewhat last week when he reported "Brookville 16 and unders hit nine home runs late in the game. Runs, yes; homeruns, no."

Woman hits hole-in one

Orangeville resident Mrs. Phyllis Groves must have been doing something right while golfing out at Acton Meadows golf course last Monday. She lined a hole in one off the second tee with a five wood while her husband Larry and son Gary watched.

Mrs. Groves was presented a dozen Lady Titelist golf balls by Acton Meadows for her accomplishment.

She finished the par 35 course with 48.

Open rooms

Local Progressive-Conservatives are hoping to have their committee rooms open this week. They're located in the store on Mill St. which was previously Acton Delicatessen.

Hornby, Glen club squirts

Hornby and Glen Williams took turns this week clubbing the Acton Building Products squirts. The Glen won an 18-2 decision Monday night while Hornby walked to a 44-13 win last Wednesday.

Tim Baker, Mark Jackson and David Jackson were Acton's heavy hitters against Hornby with Tim Baker and Chris Wood supplying Acton runs against the Glen.

Huntsville edges Rams in weekend game

A weekend trip to Huntsville resulted in another Acton Rams loss Saturday. Rams battled the Huntsville Hawks to a 12-10 decision.

Ram captain Bruce Cooksley and Paul Wilson sent Ron Turkosz in to notch the first score for the Acton crew in the first minute of play but Rams let up to allow the Hawks to post a 3-1 lead by late period.

A Kevin Marcoux shot from George Artem made the score 3-2 before the end of the period.

Ram Dave Manes charged out to tie the game in the opening minute of the middle period with a pass from Cooksley and goalie Gary Turkosz but Huntsville shooters tied the score seconds later and added a go ahead score four minutes later.

The Acton squad charged back with Artem netting a goal from Marcoux and Gary Fisher then midway through the period Wilson put the Rams into a tie.

Wayne Young combined with Ian Duff to put the Rams one in front with 7:50 left in the period.

Hawks used the remaining time to score four quick goals and closed the period leading 9-6.

Start comeback
Hawks came out for the final period, starting strong with three goals in the opening five minutes, but Ram Artem took a pass from goalie Turkosz and found the range to start a comeback.

Cooksley's shot from Marcoux stung the Huntsville twine then Rick Newman blasted one into the Hawks' cage from Cooksley and Manes.

Ron Turkosz scored with 1:19 left from Marcoux and Gary Turkosz but the Rams comeback stopped two short.
