

Agricultural Society women's meeting

The lady directors of the Acton Agricultural Society met at the home of Mrs. C. Storey on Thursday evening, June 6. The president, Mrs. Smith, opened the meeting with a poem entitled "I Pity Anyone," by Edna Jaques.

The roll call, a song I like, was answered by 12 members. Mrs. Alger reported on a meeting of the parade committee. Mrs. Matthews on the program committee and Mrs. Archibald had attended the meeting of the men's board and gave a report of it. At the close of a rather lengthy business session, Mrs. Smith conducted a contest on old songs.

pot luck picnic supper at the home of Mrs. C. Allken on August 8. Lunch was served by the hostess and the lunch committee and everyone enjoyed a social half-hour. Mrs. Linham was courtesy convener.

Final meeting

Monday, June 3 was the final meeting for the season of the Daughters of Knox. It was spent as an outing for dinner at the Amber Cupola Restaurant in Guelph and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

They will convene again in the fall.

The next meeting will be a

Full house at dance Sat.

Golden Age Club plans many events

The Lions' dance at the community centre last Saturday night was a tremendous success. There was a full house to see The Carlton Showband, a musical group in the old tavern / music hall tradition.

Art Gordon, president of the Lions' club, expects a successful financial return from the evening.

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson
Members of the Acton Golden Age Club met in Luxton Hall on Tuesday afternoon for their regular meeting.

Words of welcome were by Ivan Harris who presided. The zone picnic is being held June 11 at Coronation Park, Bronte and a bus is chartered for the occasion. The Lions Club are very generously providing a bus to take the members to the lawn party at the Halton Manor on Saturday, June 22. All club members are urged to attend both these events.

Following the business, cards and crokinole were played. Winners for euchre were Mrs. C. Cutts, Mrs. D. Cooke, Mrs. E. Craig and Mrs. E. Lambert, for crokinole, Mrs. M. Spear, Mrs. A. Holmes, Robert Warne and Alex Mann.

Club members from Rockwood served a tasty lunch of assorted sandwiches and tea. Friendly greetings were sung for Mrs. E. Reed, Mrs. J. Fuller and Ivan Harris.

Milton Police investigated an attempted purse-snatching incident this week.
