

A CROWD OF between 3500 and 4000 was at Toronto International Dragway on the Fifth Line Saturday night for the Canadian National Jet Car Show. The Stagecoach wheelstander is owned by American Tom Maras. Romeo Talamides, a veteran racer and engine builder owns "American Graffiti" also a wheelstander. The jet turbine machine with the rail body "Odyssey" belongs to Kisha Kunths. Some of the jet cars performing clocked close to 240 mph for the quarter-mile strip. Dragway officials are planning a second Jet Car Show for later this summer. Meanwhile, regular E-T bracket racing continues at the dragway every Wednesday and Friday nights.

Bantam girls battle for first place tonight

Acton Family Pool Sales bantam girls chalked up two more Halton Rural Minor Softball League victories last week to set the stage for their first place battle against Omagh here at the park tonight (Wednesday) at 6.45.

Anna Swinkels proved her ability with a bat, as she clouted a pair of homers to lead Acton to a 31-11 win over Hornby last Wednesday night. Kim McCristall also belted a round tripper for Acton, with Carol Jordan, Susan Lehn, Gayle DeForest and Kim Van Der Eyken hitting triples and Karen Van Der Eyken, Heather McEachern and Debbie Brown hitting doubles. Pitchers Heather McEachern and Anna Swinkels and catcher Susan Lehn, who snaggod almost everything that came her way were the defensive stars of the game for Acton.

Friday night Kim Van Der Eyken hit three home runs, including a grand slam and Anna Swinkels and Gayle DeForest each homered once in a 29-9 win over Glen Williams.

Susan Lehn paced the Acton hitting attack with six safeties. Heather McEachern and Kim Van Der Eyken had five each. Anna Swinkels four, Gayle DeForest, Carol Johnson, Karen Van Der Eyken and Laurel Murchison three each and Kim McCristall two. Heather McEachern pitched the whole game, walking only one batter.

Coach Pat Van Der Eyken said the nine girls played their best game of the season.

Minor soccer

Simon Ager scored five goals to give the Bombers a 6-2 win over Rockwood in Rockwood last week. Chris Hughes scored both Rockwood goals and Greg Near netted a single for Acton.

Rockwood beat Acton Rangers 5-2 in a postponed game. Chris Hughes scored three goals and Scott Petty and Gregory Brain one each for Rockwood. Ken Kavanagh and Paul Nolan scored for the Rangers.

Rovers blanked the Centennials 1-0 in a well-played game at the park.

Ken Kavanagh scored for the Rangers and Scott McLaren for the Rovers as the teams played to a 1-1 draw.

Jamie Taras' four goal effort gave the Tigers a 4-0 win over the Tornadoses at the M. Z. Bennett pitch.

In the mosquito-pee-wee division A. J. Dynamoes doubled the score 6-3 on the Hornets. Steve Mitchell and Anthony Quinn scored two goals apiece for the winners, with Fred Kroezen and Ronnie Jackson adding singles. Ricky Lott, Gary Lumbers and Steve Lumbers repaid for the Hornets with dad Kevin Lumbers coaching the improved stingers.

Rockwood Rockets trounced Acton Raiders 6-0.

Usher helps

The bride was late and the Usher almost stole the show, but when the annual Glen Men's Football tournament wound up Saturday night, the Oakville Procor team walked down the aisle to pick up first prize money of $175.

Bridesmaid's bouquet of $75 went to Georgetown Merchants whose great effort fell one run short in the championship game.

Procor and the Merchants were in extra innings of the final, when Dave Rimmer unloaded a triple and Wayne Heslop followed with a sacrifice fly to give Oakville a 4-2 lead. Trevor Forrest led off the inning with a single. Ray Inglis drove a towering home run over the left field fence in the Georgetown half of the inning, but they failed to score further.

Undeserved victim of the Oakville rally was Merchant pitcher Grant Usher, who was hurling his 22nd inning of ball for the day. The Acton recruit tossed a three hitter to blank Guelph ITT 5-0 in the first round and three steady ball in an 8-3 upset of Glen Williams in the semi-finals.

Aces snap win streak Rams start new one

Arthur Aces snapped Acton Rams Junior "C" lacrosse winning streak at four games, when they nipped the Rams 14-13 in Arthur last Tuesday night.

Rams bounced back to earn a 12-10 victory over Long Branch PCOs in Acton Monday night. The Acton club now has a record of 8-14 and is tied for sixth place in the 10 team league with the Huntsville Hawks.

Glen Sherman and Steve Wilson both fired hot tricks for the Rams in a losing cause against Arthur. Paul Wilson and Ron Turkosz netted two goals apiece, while Jim Chisholm, Kevin Marcoux and George Artem shot singles. Wayne Rooney fired five Steve Wilson and Del Watson bagged two goals each in the win over Long Beach. Bruce Cooksley, Ian Duff, Glen Sherman, Kevin Marcoux, George Artem, Paul Wilson and Kent Kentner tallied a goal each.

Next game for the Rams is against the Owen Sound Satellites in Acton Monday, July 22 at 8.30.

Coach praises tournament

Acton Chicks made a good effort, but went winless in the Shelburne girls' lacrosse tournament on the weekend. A powerful team, which coach Jim James reports had three players good enough for the Acton midjet boys team crushed the Chicks 11-2 in the first round. Karen Barber scored for Acton in the first period from Debbie Spielvogel and Pat Kelly connected in the second on a pass from Joanne Ancker. In consolation play Hamilton Bengallettes gained revenge for two previous exhibition losses to the Chicks by winning a close game 3-2. Cathy McClure and Pat Kelly scored for the Chicks and Joyce Denny earned an assist.

"It was a treat to play in a tournament in which all the teams stuck to lacrosse," commented coach James, who has been more than displeased with the tactics of Toronto area teams the Chicks have faced recently. "We were shorthanded with only two lines, but the girls gave it their best."

C'ville wins

Cellar dwelling Mississauga was beaten 6-2 by the visiting Campbellville seniors last Tuesday.

It was a scoreless tie until the fifth inning when Ray Evans doubled, went to third and scored on an infield out.

Wade Bekar hit two singles for Campbellville with Ray Evans coming through with a double and Rick Mitchell, Don Hearn, Rick Clement, Loris Faggion and Bill Dennis all hitting one baggers.
