

Friendly greetings from the front lawn

AT ONE TIME it was hitching posts in unique designs that signalled a greeting to travellers. Now lawn decorations often including house numbers, have taken on the role of the friendly nod in passing. Imagination runs rampant as homeowners come up with unique designs and embellishments to add attractive notes to front lawns. These are some of the interesting and decorative lawn decorations that our photographer glimpsed in his travels.

Staff photos by Steven Dills

