

Lighting the way . . . .

Decorative lights take many forms on North Halton lawns and cast their greeting or light the way. Some examples of the varied forms of illumination are shown in this series, many of them bearing a resemblance to antique hitching posts and early style street lights.

Staff photos by Steven Dills

