

Rams lead round robin face showdown at Orillia

Acton Rams are unbeaten following their first three games in a four team OLA Junior 'C' round robin playoff series which will declare one winner to advance to the Central group lacrosse semi-finals.

Rams walloped Long Branch PCOs 16-6 in Long Branch last Wednesday night, upset Orillia Lions for the first time this year 12-8 in Acton the next night and knocked off Long Branch for the second time 16-10 in Acton Monday night.

Huntsville Hawks, the fourth team in the round robin face the Rams in a big series this weekend. The teams play in Huntsville Saturday night and back in Acton Sunday night at 7.

Final game of the round robin and the one which will probably decide the winner is in Orillia Wednesday, August 14 between the Lions and Rams. Orillia is expected to win all its games against Long Branch and Huntsville, making that game the showdown.

Hat tricks by Jim Chisholm, George Artem and Paul Wilson sparked the Acton win in the series opener. Del Watson netted a pair of goals, while Bruce Cooksley, Wayne Young, Gary Fisher, Glen Sherman and Ron Turkoz got singles.

Ian Duff of Ballinafae and Steve Wilson scored three goals apiece against Orillia. George Artem connected twice and Bruce Cooksley, Jim Chisholm, Glen Sherman and Del Watson lit the lamp once each.

In Monday night's game Jim Chisholm led the Ram attack with four goals. Bruce Cooksley and Kevin Marcoux netted three each. Steve Wilson and Glen Sherman two each and Wayne Young and George Artem one apiece. Goalsie Gary Turkoz earned assists on six goals, bringing his assists total for the three games to nine.

Ram rookie Steve Wilson played a fine two-way game against Long Branch, first avoiding PCO checkers, then handing out some interference of his own. Steve has scored five goals in three playoff games to help the Rams take the lead in their round robin series. The team travels to Huntsville Saturday night and plays a return game against the Hawks in Acton Sunday night at 7. Key game in the round robin, however, could be in Orillia next Wednesday night against the Lions.

Sue Thomson all-star hurler

Burlington Kinsmen rolled heavily on aid from the northern part of the Halton Region, as they posted a 6-1 record to win the Canadian junior girls' softball championship in the National Tournament they hosted in Burlington on the holiday weekend.

Sue Thomson, the 16 year old pitching star from Brookville joined Kinsmen for the tournament and played a large role in the victory, as she pitched a 3-1 win over Prince Edward Island, beat B.C. 3-2 in extra innings in a crucial game Sunday and turned in fine relief jobs in two other games in a 7-1 conquest of Alberta and 9-6 win over B.C. in the championship game Monday.

In recognition of her efforts Sue was selected to the tournament all-star team as pitcher and presented with a handsome trophy.

Many of Sue's teammates on both the Brookville Selects junior team and Brookville 16 and under girls were on hand to cheer the Kinsmen to victory. Last year Sue travelled to B.C. with the Kitchener Civitan juniors who represented Ontario in the Canada Games.

Kinsmen, who finished first in the Southern Ontario League gained a berth in the Canadian championships as the host team, even though they had been eliminated in the Ontario championships.

Milverton represented Ontario in the event. Brookville Selects placed fourth in the Southern Ontario League. Burlington defeated Manitoba 10-0 and Alberta 7-1 and lost to B.C. 4-3 Saturday. On Sunday they topped PEI 3-1, Ontario 4-2 and B.C. 3-2. They posted a 9-6 win over B.C. in Monday's championship game against the hard-hitting west coast crew.

Golfing popular sport for both pros, hackers

After a wet start it has turned out to be a good year for golfing, says manager of Acton Meadows Golf Course, Gerald Fridmore. He mentioned that the course was in fairly good shape and that the greens are excellent.

Long weekends are normally busy times for all golf courses and this past Civic holiday weekend was no exception. Members and novice golfers alike were on the tees trying to manoeuvre the little white ball down the fairway into the hole.

On Sunday the tees were closed for four hours to all non-members, while a senior member tournament was played for the Kevin Hall Memorial, in honor of Kevin Hall, a former member of the golf course who lost his life in an automobile accident. Winners of the event were Mr. and Mrs. K. Andrews.

The majority of members who belong to Acton Meadows are from Acton and Georgetown. Competition for Acton is primarily in Georgetown from North Halton and Georgetown Golf and Country Club.

Although Acton is only a nine hole course, it holds a steady membership. The attribute on which most people comment is the fact that one doesn't become overly tired walking around the course—it's an easy course to walk. Whether it is easy to play is another question entirely, depending on whether you're good or just a regular hacker.

Emms downs Cambridge

Campbellville south paw Wayne Emms came on strong to lead the villagers past the Cambridge Pirates 9-4 in Galt's Dixon Park Saturday night.

George Moore and Rick Ortwien did the hurting for the Cambridge squad. They homer in the first inning. Also carrying big bats for Acton were Ian Paul, Robert Dawe and Paul Cargill with two hits apiece and Brian Canary, Mike Yalowica and Ray Hands with one each. Yalowica's hit was a home run.

Jim Marchment, Warren Stalkwell and Rennie May were the only Hornby players to hit safely.

Acton went undefeated during the regular season, finishing first with a record of nine wins and three ties in 12 games.

Acton: Ian Paul 2b, Mike Yalowica c, Robert Dawe ss, Brian Canary 1b, Bruce Shannon p, Ray Hands 3b, Paul Cargill cf, Bruce Canary rf, Wayne Cunningham lf.

Tripled twice For Campbellville, Mitchell tripled twice and singled once while Don Hearns homered and singled twice.

Ray Evans and Bob Biskup each singled for the visitors.

Campbellville took a 2-0 lead in the first inning before a man was out.

Neither team scored in the final three innings.
