

BRENDA HARDING and Karen McHugh carried the banner for the winning M. Z. Bennett playground float in Thursday's wind-up parade.

IT COULD BE Bonnie and Clyde but it was really part of the cast on the M. Z. Bennett float in Thursday's playground parade.

WATER SAFETY FLOAT decorated with bathing beauties and beaus was part of the playground parade, decorated by the lifeguards at Fairy Lake and the wading pool.

MANDY AND Tammy Calver took refuge from the sun under parasols on the Roaring Twenties float which won the prize in the playground parade.

Parade, festivities, end Playground '74

By Wynnie Kroes

This is the final report, since last Thursday was the finish of playground.

Last week was basically a week of preparation for the floats and final night, along with a good-bye party at each playground.

Congratulations are in order for the M. Z. Bennett playground. They won the trophy for the best float. Their float was of the Roaring Twenties. The other three floats were; Prospect Park, Robin Hood and The Sherwood Forest, Robert Little, The Old Woman who lived in a Shoe and the lifeguards had their float decorated with bathing beauties and water safety equipment.

The final night consisted of an hour of games, followed by a water safety show.

We would like to thank our four judges, Mrs. Gibbs, Mr. Doby, Mr. MacKenzie and Mr. Townsley for doing such a fine job.

Also we would like to thank all the parents, sisters, brothers, etc. who joined us for trips, drove us down swimming and the other millions of things they did for us. Your work was well-appreciated.

Last but not least, we would like to thank all our leaders in training for coming down day after day and helping the leaders.

Well that's all to say for now, so see you next year at playground.

CINDY CALVER and Tracy Dunbar flank playground leaders Mark Rowe and Tine Vryenhoek on the prize-winning Roaring Twenties float of the M. Z. Bennett playground.

SHARON CRIPPS won the trophy for the best behaved and most cooperative girl in the Robert Little playground. She's flanked by Janet Smedema and Wynnie Kroes, leaders. Jimmy Richards won the boys' award but was unavailable for the picture.
