Induct minister school changes

by Doris Fines
Winners of Higman's Park horse show tournament last Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Ann Pankratz and Mrs. Gladys Lang, Donald Archibald and Gordon Peavoy. Ladies' competitive was won by Mrs. Barbara Boyes and Mrs. Jean Peavoy. Men's competitive winners were Henry Pankratz and Elmer Fisher. It was reported a good time was had by all.

Lydia and Sandy Dudnik spent a week holidaying at Presqu'ile Park at Brighton. Doris Fines and Mrs. Thomas Fines accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson of Belwood, enjoyed a leisurely motor trip to Sault Ste. Marie where they took the Algoma Central Railway tour up the Agawa Canyon. Other stopping points were the mines at Sudbury, St. Joseph Island with its unique pudding stones and Manitoulin Island.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Howard have returned from a trip to Manitoba, where they went north as far as Ft. Flon. They took the Muskogee Express from The Pas to Churchill on Hudson Bay. The ice was still in the harbour and the grain boats hadn't arrived yet. They stayed at White Shell Provincial Park and Riding Mountain National Park and saw the Manitoba Stampede at Morris. The highlight of the trip for Mr. Howard was the old time threshers reunion at Austin, where competitions were held between the steam threshing machine and the gas thresher. An old time stooking contest was also held. They visited Manitoulin Island on the way home.

Members of Ospringe Women's Institute are planning a tea to celebrate their 70th anniversary meeting. The meeting was held at the home of Miss Doris Fines. The roll call was answered by naming a custom of another country that I like. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. Elmer Fisher. Courtesies were extended to the hostess by Mrs. D. G. Robertson. Mrs. Elmer Fisher visited on Labour day weekend in Noranda, Quebec, where she attended the wedding of her niece Helen Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fisher.

Education
Doreen Vander Vlugt is taking a course in Canadian Arts of Flower Designing. She begins this week at the Alma Lou Shop in Hamilton. Brenda Bruce and Lydia Dudnik have enrolled at Guelph University this fall. Richard Vander Vlugt is attending GCVI in Guelph and Dan Ferguson is beginning grade 9 at Erin District High School. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken visited with Gordon's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aitken on the weekend at their cottage on Lake Dalrymple. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, Gary Ferguson, Laura Tryssenaar, Mrs. Thomas Fines and Doris Fines, visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson, in Fergus.

Erin schools
Once again the school yards are resounding to the ring of children's voices as buses transport the scholars to various places of learning. Schools in Erin Township had a general upheaval when the new Jr. High was formed in Erin, taking all the grades 7 and 8 from the public schools. Two new French classes were added at Brisbane. There was a shifting of teachers, too, as some who taught these grades stayed on to teach one of the lower grades, some retired, while others moved to another school.

347 pupils
ERIN PUBLIC SCHOOL has an enrollment of 347 pupils with Mr. Bruce Macpherson, principal, and Mr. Bob Reeve, vice-principal. There are six new teachers on the staff: Mrs. Wendy Thompson teaching grade I came from grade I in Guelph; Mrs. Ann Vossen, also teaching grade I, coming back after a year of absence; Miss Nancy Scott in grade 2, a new teacher fresh from college; Miss Nancy Howlett, also in grade 2, transferred from the northern part of the county; in grade 3 Mrs. Dixie Corrigan coming back from extended leave was a former teacher at Ospringe; Mrs. Doralyn Cantin, coming from Guelph is teaching grad. 4/5.

HILLSBURGH PUBLIC SCHOOL has 302 pupils, Mr. Andrew King, principal. Two new teachers were added to the staff. Mrs. Ann Graham teaching kindergarten transferred from Brisbane and Mrs. Joan Miller coming from Barrie is teaching grade 4.

BRISBANE PUBLIC SCHOOL has 263 pupils, Mr. Bob Muir, principal. The two French teachers are the only new ones added: Miss Edwina Theano teaching kindergarten French with 13 pupils and Mrs. Murielle Lasreniere teaching grade 1 French with 23 pupils.

OSPRINGE PUBLIC SCHOOL has 172 pupils, Mr. Lorne A. Brown, principal. One new teacher joined the staff, Mrs. Arlene Hopkins came from Rockwood and is teaching grade 1.

Induction service
Rev. R. George Lewis was inducted into the pastoral charge of Knox Presbyterian Church, Ospringe and Burns Presbyterian Church, Erin at Ospringe on Wednesday evening, September 4. Rev. Wayne Maddock of Hillsburgh was in charge of the service, welcoming Mr. Lewis to the congregation and wishing him the best in his ministry.

The turnout of church members and other interested parties was evident of the welcome extended to both Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. The sermon was delivered by Rev. W. Nicholson of Knox Church in Grand Valley and Miss Lois Cunningham sang a solo during the service.

Rev. Dr. Douglas Lowry of Campbellville gave the Narration of Steps and the Induction was by the Moderator Rev. Harry E. Waite of Oakdale Presbyterian Church.

The Charge to the Minister and Congregation was given by Rev. Dr. R. G. MacMillan of Knox Church, Oakville. A reception was held in the basement after the service, where everyone had the opportunity to personally welcome Mr. and Mrs. Lewis. Rev. Jack Gillap, on behalf of the Session and congregation of Erin United Church extended a welcome as at times the two churches work closely together.

Father-son
Mr. Maddock observed in his words of welcome, "In the Presbytery of Wellington they have a brother team of three ministers. We have one better by having a father-son team in Brampton Presbytery."

Mr. Lewis' son Roderick of Milton is ministering in Omagh and Boston charges and he was present to welcome his father into the Presbytery, adding that he was following in his father's footsteps but this was one time he was ahead of him. He is married with one son.

Another son Gareth lives in Kitchener, married, and has two daughters and a son. A daughter Julie, living in Stratford is also married with one daughter. Mr. Lewis is a native of Wales and joined the Church of Scotland. He came to Canada first to New Brunswick then spent four years in Bermuda, ministering there, back to Toronto for eight years, then five years ago he took the charge at Rodney. He was also a Chaplain with the British and Canadian army.

AFTER MARCHING with the Elmvalle Baton Corps in the Hillsburgh Potato Fest Parade, three year old Steven Dove and Rochelle French drew a crowd at the fair grounds when they decided to make friends with Diablo, 182 pounds of Great Dane belonging to Tony Jardine of Hillsburgh.

Limehouse

Holidays, meet shower interest

by Mrs. A. Benton
Mrs. S. Mileham enjoyed three weeks in Mexico City visiting friends who are natives of that country. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Schenk and family holidayed with friends in Bridgewater, N.S. for several weeks. While there they received the sad news of the sudden passing of her mother, Mrs. Egberina Stryk, at her home in Hamilton. They flew home for the funeral and returned east for their car and family. We extend sympathy to them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leferink attended her grandmother's funeral at Hamilton a couple of weeks ago. They visited friends in St. Thomas on the holiday weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlees of Campbellville visited her sister, Mrs. Benton on Sunday. The W.I. met in the Limehouse Memorial Hall on Thurs. evening, 13 attending. O Canada and the collect were used in opening and the Ode and Good Night Ladies in closing. Mrs. Davies read current events, and Mrs. Kirkwood reported on 4-H activities. Considerable time was spent planning for fall fairs and the plowing match banquet.

Agriculture convener Mrs. N. Anderson chose corn as her subject, telling of cultivation and uses. Roll call was answered by naming one's favorite corn dish. Mrs. Gisby convened a tasty lunch. Thirty relatives in the Sinclair family and the close family of the bride-to-be gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson on Sunday afternoon to honor Mr. James Hutchinson and Miss Debbie Potter with a family shower. Both young folks are from Weston and will be married Sept. 21.

Interesting year set for Sunday school

by Mrs. R. Shortill, Jr.
Sunday School is re-opened and an interesting year is being planned by the teachers and their helpers. We hope that all children in the community will take advantage of the Sunday school this year regardless of creed. When we see the large number of young people climbing on the school buses we can not help wishing more advantage is not made of our church facilities children wise.

The hall board sponsored a corn roast and hot dog evening on Saturday night. There was a good attendance to enjoy dancing.

Bouquets
Mr. Ken Pankney was repairing one of the monuments in the cemetery Monday morning. The corner is nicely mowed again, thanks to our council.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shortill attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lelloy McArthur on Sunday. The Women's Institute met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. New members and two visitors attended. Plans for the ploughing match serving were completed. The new 4-H club, The Club Girl Entertainers, was discussed. Mrs. Kirkwood and Mrs. Smith had attended the training class.

Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Sudbury are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith. Mrs. Leo Jamieson has been in Scotland for a visit.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Brian Mills (Linda Prouff), whose marriage took place recently. The reception was in Ballinafad church.

A number of interested people attended the potato fest in Hillsburgh on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Shortill of Toronto who was a nephew of the late Harry Shortill (Sr.) called on Mrs. R. Shortill on day the week Mr. Shortill is a headmaster at Eaton's.

Mr. and Catharine Macdonald recently entertained Toronto school mates of Catharine's, Miss Shirley (Continued on Page 11)
