

Plowed field as lad, there again for match

By Mrs. R. Shortill Sr.
Mr. Lloyd McLean has returned home and convalescing from surgery. We hope his health will be improved.

Mr. Lloyd Marshall has also been in hospital. Friends have been deeply concerned and trust he soon will regain his health. He has now returned home from hospital.

A number from here took advantage of the ploughing match. The Women's Institute had a corner in the Halton County building and on Wednesday demonstrated creative stitching and displayed some of their work.

Same field
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith visited the ploughing match on Thursday. They, with a group of others, visited the field where the ploughing was being done. I must tell an interesting little item (I am sure Frank will not mind). When he first came to Canada from England and worked on that farm at the age of seventeen, he ploughed in that very same field. Mr. Smith was one of a large family and settled here, marrying the former Winifred Halls. He is a veteran of World War I.

Five ladies from the U.C.W. also attended on Tuesday afternoon, having their turn in the church tent - the topic for the day being the "Family." Many very valuable pamphlets were there to be picked up as well as some worthwhile paperbacks, which were for sale.

Also, on display was the new tractor which is designed for Angola and for which contributions were accepted.

Mr. Paul Metcalfe was one who entered the ploughing competition. Paul is a lover of all things pertaining to farming. He was able to come in on the list of winners. Baby welcomed. Congratulations are extended to Janice and Henri Gagne on the safe arrival of their baby Kevin this week, a second grandchild for Mrs. Ada McLenn.

Mrs. Ada McLenn is now residing in Acton sharing an apt. on Church St. with her sister Mrs. Myrtle Beswick.

We must enter a word of congratulations to two of our Saturday brides, Maggie Given and Bonnie Cotton. Many from here attended their weddings.

Miss music
In spite of the rainy morning Sunday a good attendance was at Church. We dismiss the men's choir or the Jr. choir. It would be pleasant to have even a solo on each Sunday. We do have many good vocalists among us.

The sermon was an informal one on Sunday. Rev. Stiles referring to the scant response to our church tea at the ploughing match. Also several interesting encounters were spoken of. Communion services will be next Sunday and the official opening of St. Andrew's new church will take place in the afternoon of that day.

Moving away
We are sorry Mr. Ed Healey's health made it necessary for him to give up his home here and sell his household effects on Saturday. We understand his nice little seventh line home has been sold and he is moving to Toronto.

Mr. Barker of England is spending some time with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. Pinkerton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid have sold their lovely home next to French's, and will be moving away.

The dance on Saturday night was only fairly attended.

Fowl dinner
A number of us attended the Fowl dinner at Eden Mills last week and enjoyed their hospitality and their tasty food. It was very well organized and we commend them for their efforts.

"The Queen" of Ballinafad
The Benedettis went to the tri-state cavaller speciality in New Jersey and took the cream off the top. They won, first in Sr. Puppy Bitch with "Love", Open Blenheim Bitch with "Pippa", Open American Dog with "Andy" and Open American Bitch with "Fury". "Fury" then had to compete with the males and took "Winners Bitch" being opposite sex, and reserve winner to the dog which took Best in Show who was "King" over 67 Cavalier King Charles Spaniels and over 100 other Rare Breeds.

To cap it all on the next day their daughter Denise won first in the Senior Showmanship class. Truly a great weekend!

Churchill

Churchill Community church service and church school was very well attended. Rev. A. W. Fosbury's sermon subject was "The Survival of the Church". Choir anthem was "Go Forth to Life". Church service and Sunday School is held Sunday mornings at 11 a.m. All are welcome.

A birthday gathering was held for Donald Anderson on Sunday at his home Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson and David. Guests were his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. A. Kerr, Mrs. Beatrice Anderson and Mrs. Doris Kenner of Acton, also the Strokov family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maltby and three boys Guy, Jeffrey and Gregory attended the International Ploughing Match. Reports are they enjoyed the day. We wonder will they be plowmen some day?

Holidays
Mrs. Clara Mitchell and her younger granddaughter Janie arrived home Sunday after two weeks holidaying with relatives at Niagara Falls and nearby homes. Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Riley spent the weekend in Ottawa. They report having a very nice time.

Mrs. W. J. McDonald attended a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder in Streetsville on September 24, to honor Mrs. Alberta Williamson on her 90th birthday.

Mrs. W. J. McDonald received word on Monday of the death of her aunt, Mrs. William Hewster of Beaverton. Mabel Stubbs, she taught in Woodside School approximately 60 years ago.

Plowing match Scottish visitors

by Doris Fines
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howes and their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert from Oban, Scotland, took advantage of the warm sunny weather last week, and took in the plowing match. They also enjoyed a few days at Parry Sound.

Church service was at 11 a.m. Sunday morning, when communion was observed. Burns' Presbyterian congregation of Erin joined with the local Knox Church for the service. Soloist for the occasion was Alan Walma.

Keep in mind the roast beef supper coming up the end of the month, Oct. 28.

Halloween
Due to the favorable response last year's Halloween party provided, there will be another one held this year. If there are any volunteers to help or you would like to donate anything, leave it at the store, or let Lydia Dudnik know. Any suggestions for entertainment will also be welcome.

A "meet the teacher" night was held at the school Wednesday when a good number of parents arrived to talk with the teachers and enjoy a friendly get together over a cup of coffee.

The last few days the change in the leaves is quite apparent. They are quickly taking on their beautiful autumn coloring.

First flakes

Big wet flakes of first-snow met early risers Tuesday morning, harbingers of coming winter.

Ebenezer

October anniversary held with a supper

Mrs. Ron McLean
Ebenezer anniversary will be held this year on Oct. 20, with a supper on the 22nd.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Walter Lucas, who was a valued member of the congregation, before the family moved.

Next Sunday, World-Wide Communion will be observed.

Ebenezer Choir provided special music at Morrison anniversary Sunday night. "Blessed are the merciful" means those who are able to understand intelligently what other people are going through. Through sociological changes, rural people no longer know one another like they used to. People buy farms of 100 acres for privacy, then they begin to feel lonely, not able to adjust.

Limehouse

W.I. ladies assist at plowing match

By Mrs. Art Benton
Ten ladies of Limehouse W.I. assisted the Halton branches in serving at the Ontario Plowmen's Association banquet at Mohawk Raceway on Friday evening where guests numbered 1,841.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roughley are living at The Shieling for the winter months.

Mrs. John Wood of Toronto visited Mrs. J. Crichton and attended anniversary services.

Rev. R. Lewis of Boston and Omagh was guest preacher at the 113rd Limehouse Presbyterian church anniversary services last Sunday, assisted by Rev. P. Barrow in the evening. The choir sang anthems and Mrs.

Karn and Mrs. Denny, duets at both services. We were pleased with the attendance and meeting friends. Coffee, tea, breads and cheese were enjoyed at a social in the evening.

Communion services will commence at 9:30 a.m. next Sunday. Sunday school will open for the fall term afterwards.
