Retired farmer dies in Guelph

Charles Edwin Davenport of 26 Collingwood St., Guelph, died in Guelph General Hospital on September 28. He was born 77 years ago in Nanawagweya Twp.

Pet of the week

GBIA IS the three-year-old German Shepherd family friend of the Gord Billon family of Wetherald St., Rockwood. Neighbourhood children like to dress up the friendly dog, cover her with blankets and share their goodies with her. Reportedly she is a neighborhood pet of every week.

Margaret (Mrs. Vernon Cole) of Guelph, widow of Mrs. M. Zimmerman of Dundas and Charles Martin Davenport, of Kitchener and one sister Mrs. R. Ripley of Toronto. He is also survived by 11 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Davenport was a retired farmer and was active on the Milton Fair Board. Funeral services were held on September 28 at St. John's Church, Nanawagweya.

Funeral services were held on September 28 at St. John's Church, Nanawagweya. Pallbearers were H. Peterson, Norm Taylor, Stan Robinson, Ivan Richardson, Stan Brown, Cliff Brown; honorary pallbearers Roy Currie and William Currie. Flower bearers were Jim Davenport, Dave Cole, Chris Davenport and Bob Rankin. All were grandsons of the deceased.

It's a good thing to read between the lines; it tires the eyes less.

The Golden Age club started out on a rainy, grey day for their bus trip to Niagara Falls Tuesday. Sunshine appeared later.

Many from this area attended Open House Saturday and Sunday at Elm Tree Farm, Nanawagweya. Elizabeth Honey and daughter Martha Currie exhibited and sold water colours, fabric prints, wool, bakke, quilts, pottery and ceramics. These talented women are well known in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Molly Hill of Detroit, Me. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ruse, Laura and Brian of Toronto, Me. and Mrs. Harold Johnson of Georgetown, Mrs. Evelyn McKim of Guelph were recent visitors with Mrs. J. M. Senala, Lake Ave. Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. Small Road Senior visited with Carol Reed and family in the weekend and with their attached part of the Pleasanton Split Rail Festival on Saturday.

Handmade Cookies by Sandra McElroy officially opened the festival. She and her entrance arrived in carrying trays by two beautiful matched teams and attended by coachmen dressed in old fashioned black top hat and tails coat.

The grand opening and planning's attention to large crowds and right the order call the spirit of this festival. The main stage the night will be taken as the night for the festival to bring the pleasure who have just opened up at this area. Later was a reception at that time that a man used for many things that had to be built by sand and tending was of great importance. Right order call brought a practical and cheap method.

Local speeches were made by Bill Winkler MP for Guelph County and state area member of Parliament made a short tour of the area where the festival continued Saturday evening and Sunday with church services bus tours and displays. This festival proved to be a real success and a step to be an annual affair in the future according to the Acton family.
