House league hockey to begin November 2

House league teams for the Acton Legion Minor Hockey Association were selected at a meeting Monday night and play will begin at the arena Saturday, November 2.

Team rosters are listed below. A full schedule of ice times for November 2 will appear in next week's Free Press.

Legion Minor Hockey Chairman John Toebes requests that all players trying out with Waterloo-Wellington league rep teams stay with those teams until they are either signed or cut. They should not show up for house league play, if they are still with the rep teams.

Assisting John on the Legion Minor Hockey executive this year are Gabe Rosenbersky, Gary McEachern, Jim McKnight, treasurer Gord McCutcheon and Legion Branch 197 representative Bob Louttel.

The association is still in dire need of coaches, managers and referees. Persons interested in helping out should contact either John Toebes or Gabe Rosenbersky.

Sabres stymied again by late arrival of ice

Acton Sabres are hoping to play an exhibition game against Georgetown juveniles here at the arena this Friday night, but that will depend on whether or not ice is ready. Flooding was to start last night (Tuesday). Sabres have already held nine pre-season workouts in Georgetown and two more in Orangeville in preparation for the Mid-Ontario Junior "C" hockey season. Sabres play host to Schomberg Cougars in their first game Friday, November 1. League play begins this Friday night with Bradford playing in Bracebridge and Penetang travelling to Huntsville.

With the exception of two goaltenders, Coach Dave McKnight has selected and signed what will likely be his starting lineup against Schomberg. Brian Beaumont, Warren Craig and Steve Taylor are back on defence along with midget grads Kent Kentner and Steve Brunelle and 16 year old Lloyd Moore, who played midget hockey in Mississauga last year. Up front Sabres will have returnee Charlie McRae and newcomers Pete Fendley of Georgetown and Dave Chapman of Rockwood at centre.

Right wingers Gary Turkosz and Mark McCauley are back along with midget grad Russ Van Fleet. Starting on the left side will be three year vet Pete Morrison, returnee Bob Inglis and newcomer Nigel Cook, who has played Junior "B" hockey in Brampton. John Sheppard will be the extra forward.
