

Scottish wedding for Alexander - Cheyne

Knox Presbyterian Church was the scene of the marriage of Sheila Rosemary Cheyne and Randolph Barclay Alexander on September 14, at 3:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheyne of 88 Main St., Acton and is a bookkeeper at Northern Electric, Brampton.

The groom, the son of Mr.

and Mrs. Alex Alexander of Station St., Alton, Ontario, is a sheeter operator at Morgans Adhesives.

The Scottish ceremony, the bride wore a white satin dress with ruffled edge, long train. Her headpiece, a bow with matching pearl-like beads, held her long veil. The bride carried red roses.

Karyn Manes of Erin was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were cousin Valerie Fraser of Ospringe, friend Muriel McCutcheon of Acton, sister Kathleen Cheyne of Acton, flowergirls, groom's niece Carolyn Seyler of Orangeville and bride's sister Heather Cheyne, also of Acton.

The bridal attendants wore red velvet dresses with short sleeves and chantilly lace at the neckline. They carried white carnations with red glads.

Doug Fleck of Brampton was best man for his good friend. Ushers were the groom's brother-in-law Bruce Seyler, of Orangeville, brothers Rod Alexander of Orangeville and Eric Alexander of Erin, friend John Holmes of Orangeville, and friend Bob Skippin of Fergus.

Following the ceremony there was a dance at the Acton Music Centre with Bob and Corey musicians.

Mary Anderson of Acton made all the bridesmaids' dresses. Mary Graham of Erin made the wedding cake and Mrs. Bruce Farr of Rockwood decorated it. Peter Malcam, a good friend of the bride from Seaford, was the piper.

O Perfect Love and The Lord's My Shepherd were sung by everyone present.

The wedding took place in Our Lady Queen of Croatia Church, Toronto, with Father Guram officiating at the ceremony and Sister Maria Angela was the organist. A member of the church choir sang the Wedding Song and Ave Maria. The church was decorated with white carnations and yellow mums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal empire gown of white nylon edged with Chantilly lace and pearls. Her train was edged with Chantilly lace. The veil was long and trailing, edged with the same lace. Her headpiece was a small round crown with pearls and sequins.

She carried three white orchids, with white carnations, white stephanotis and red roses, edged with green fern.

The matron of honor was the wife of the best man, Mrs. Marica Bradica. She wore a full-length empire style dress of light yellow nylon with a white daisy design. Her bouquet was round with yellow roses, blue and yellow carnations edged with green ferns.

The senior bridesmaids were the groom's cousin from Toronto Susan Ulasic, Zora Zoretich, the bride's cousins from London, Marian Babic and Donna Babic, the bride's friends Ursula Fiedler from Georgetown, and Maria Lorkovic from Toronto. They all wore light blue nylon dresses with white daisies and carried round bouquets edged with green ferns made up of white and blue carnations with a few yellow roses.

The junior bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Cathy

The junior bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Cathy

Cavlovic of Acton, and friends Elizabeth Tkac and Marianna Kovacic, both from Toronto and Mary Vinski from Acton. They wore light pink gowns of nylon with white daisies. They carried round edged bouquets with ferns, baby breath, pink and white carnations and pink roses.

The flower girl Theresa Thomas was the cousin of the groom from Ottawa. She wore a white light nylon dress with yellow daisies. Her flowers were in a white basket with yellow daisies, yellow and white carnations, baby breath and green ferns.

The groom's attendants The best man was Janko Bradica, first cousin of the groom. The ushers were the groom's brother, Frank Thomas, cousins Ivan Zoretich and Fred Thomas, cousins of the bride, Mike and Joe Draganjac, and a friend Robert Marks.

Ringbearer was the cousin of the groom, Peter Stanicic. The groom wore a white Windsor suit, with black pants.

There was a dinner and evening reception, both held at the church.

The bride wore a light green dress with a matching jacket as they left for their honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the Pocono Mountains and the Penn Hill Resort.

The bride's grandparents on her father's side attended and the grandparents of the bride on her mother's side attended from Croatia, Yugoslavia. Aunts and uncles attended from Buffalo and Montreal. The groom's uncle attended from Croatia as well as uncles and aunts and cousins from Penn, Ottawa, and Timmins.

Other guests came from Toronto, Acton, Georgetown, Guelph, London, Montreal and United States.

Both the bride and groom came to Canada in 1958 from Croatia with their parents.

The bride had a miscellaneous shower, given by her mother, grandmother, and her mother-in-law to be on June 30 at the Croatian National Home with 140 guests in attendance from Toronto, Acton and Georgetown.

The groom is an air-conditioning and refrigeration technologist with Beaver Engineering Ltd., in Toronto. The bride is a student at Lakeshore Teachers' College also in Toronto.

Standing committee members were given by Mrs. C. McIntyre and Mrs. N. Douglas on visiting; Mrs. M. Hunter on citizenship; Mrs. W. Lusby on agriculture; Mrs. E. Norton on family

Mrs. Armstrong to attend area convention

Hostess for the October meeting of Dublin Women's Institute was Mrs. Marnell Nellis, Blue Springs Road, Milton (Nassaugawa) last Thursday evening, with a good attendance of members and two visitors.

The area convention will be held in Blingeman Park, Kitchener, on November 25 and 26, and Mrs. Armstrong will attend as delegate, with Mrs. N. Douglas as alternate.

Mrs. W. Lusby reviewed the different exhibits at the three neighboring fall fairs.

Standing committee members were given by Mrs. C. McIntyre and Mrs. N. Douglas on visiting; Mrs. M. Hunter on citizenship; Mrs. W. Lusby on agriculture; Mrs. E. Norton on family

On the branch level, Mrs. M. Hunter reported that the food booth which had been operated during the week, was very successful. A quilt was sold as well.

Mrs. E. Norton reported on the sale of the recipe book, which had been compiled by the members. There has been a good response, and many were sold at the Plowing Match and also privately.

Mrs. C. McIntyre, as resolutions committee member, presented the resolution submitted by North Waterloo Women's Institute, which was affirmed. This will be voted on at the area convention.

December 5 was named as family night of the branch to be held in Luxton Hall, Acton. A committee was chosen to look after the details.

In the absence of the district director, Mrs. H. Blyth, Mrs. M. Hunter gave the report of the district directors' meeting held at Milton recently.

affairs and Mrs. I. L. Davidson on consumer affairs.

Mrs. E. Wilson handed in the proceeds from a sale recently.

Plowing Match Mrs. M. Nellis gave a full report of the International Plowing Match held at Ashgrove recently as it affected the County Women's Institute. She told of the program in the county tent, where excellent displays of needlecraft and fashion shows were given each day. Twelve hundred people registered during the show, and all had been pleased with the performances. At the banquet at the Mohawk Raceway, the Institutes had served 1841 guests, and the local branch had looked after 200 guests.

Two guests Two Women's Institute ladies from the Fergus district were guests and gave a splendid display of their handwork. All were intrigued with the many articles shown, many of them simple things around the home, made into useful and pretty articles. Mrs. D. Hunter thanked the ladies for the splendid demonstration, which everyone enjoyed so much.

thoughts were expressed and enjoyed by the ladies.

Janet was served by Mrs. C. Davidson, Mrs. J. Kennick and Mrs. N. Douglas, assisted by the hostess, Mrs. Nellis, and all enjoyed a social time over the tea.

Mrs. M. McCullough expressed the thanks of everyone for the very fine evening's program.

Mrs. Thompson was presented with a silver certificate by Sue Bower on behalf of the donating store, Birks at Square One in Mississauga, at the fair ladies' board progressive euchre party at Luxton Hall, Friday night.

Lynn MacDonald won the junior competition and received a sewing cabinet for her efforts. This division was for entrants 19 years old and under.

A quilt was given away at the party along with a $10 Eaton's certificate. Mrs. Lenora McKinnon of Elmore Dr. won the quilt and Mary Heppner won the gift certificate.

Mrs. E. Archibald, Mrs. C. Aitken and Mrs. George Wallace made the quilt.

The fourth meeting of the Dublin South Manner Minder was held at the home of Joanne and Liza Koks. It was opened with the 4-H pledge.

The topic of what to put in the guest room was discussed. They went on to talk about formal and informal teas. It was then learned that there are two types of tea; high tea and afternoon tea.

Marshalls leave for Vancouver

On Sunday, a quiet dinner party was held at the Royal Cafe to honor Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall who are leaving Acton to take up residence in North Vancouver, British Columbia. Daughter Robin accompanied her parents to the dinner. The Wong family had a table tastefully arranged for the occasion. Unfortunately sons Kenneth Junior and Joe were not able to attend since they have already moved to Vancouver.

The committee of three expressed thanks to the Wongs, neighbors and friends.

Should the Marshalls care to someday return to Acton, it was generously expressed they would be welcomed, as they have always been kind and generous neighbors and friends, as well as active in community interests.

Three close friends represented all their neighbors and friends at the dinner party. During the dinner the Marshalls were presented with a digital clock radio as well as an individual gift for each member of the family. Accompanying the gifts were two cards, one bearing the names of 37 people who donated and were genuinely pleased to wish the Marshalls well.

Unfortunately there was not enough room on the card to include the names of all the children of the families represented, so a group note conveyed their good wishes.

Another card was presented enclosing all the notes from out-of-town well-wishers. Also in this card was enclosed an envelope containing a goodly sum of money, the balance of the donations beyond the price of the gifts.

Everyone wishes the Marshalls well and are sorry to see them leave; but know their usual "open-door" will welcome any friends or neighbors who may manage to travel to Vancouver. The Marshalls were profuse in inviting friends to visit them out west.

Mrs. Ethel Bessem pointed out the Free Press was wrong last week in including her among the usual district exhibitors. She and husband Herman have sold their cozy house on Highway No. 7 and moved to Guelph. Their crafts have made many Acton buyers happy over the years, and best wishes will go with them to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rognvaldson attended the 60th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Rognvaldson's mother and father in Oshawa on Saturday, Oct. 19.

Bill and Mabel Denny (nee Rolls) celebrated their 53th wedding anniversary yesterday, October 22. The couple live at 116 Elizabeth
