

CLOWNS FROM THE Acton Figure skating club pulled Cinderella's pumpkin as she rode in the Santa Claus parade on Saturday.

SANTA RODE atop Acton's fire truck and waved at all the good boys and girls in town. After the parade Santa talked to children at the former Dills' Stationery store where he will call on weekends until Christmas.

CUBS AND BEAVERS could be seen marching proudly down Mill St. on Saturday as part of the Santa Claus parade. They were one of the larger groups and worked hard on their float, which was just ahead of them.

JEFF COOPER STARRED as an angel in Saturday's Santa Claus parade. The easy riding angel was a delight to all who turned out for the parade.

Santa arrives in town

YOUNGSTERS FROM Church St. were participants in the Santa Claus parade on Saturday.

TROMBONIST JERRY Paton oompa-pahs his way through the streets. Sunglasses cut the glare of Saturday's sunshine.

ASSISTANT CUB LEADER Rick Gamsyager drove the tractor which pulled the cubs and beavers float during the Santa Claus parade on Saturday. The cubs worked on the float for two weeks prior to the big event.

DONNY AND HEATHER Cuthbert led ponies and the rest of their family in Acton's Santa Claus parade on Saturday.
