Only town walks to be shovelled

Halton Hills works committee decided Monday night to just clean sidewalks in front of town-owned property. The councillors thought there was no sense in setting up a by-law requiring residents to clean the sidewalks in front of their property since it is impossible to enforce it. "We should only have a by-law if we can enforce it. Towns a lot bigger than we have had by-laws like this and couldn't enforce them so I don't think we could do any better," said councillor Ern Hyde. The committee decided to get the legal opinion of the town solicitor to see just what the town's legal responsibilities are concerning unshovelled walks.

SNOWCLOUDS cluster over picturesque Churchill community church these 7 1/2 days. It's a particularly delightful sight on country drives.
