The new campus will have no effect on Sheridan's heavy equipment school in Milton.

Chairman pleased Bert Hinton, who is chairman of the building committee, was very pleased when he called the Free Press to tell of the grant. He anticipates Acton people would attend the Brampton campus because of the natural flow of No. 7 Highway. He could see GO train service, too, by the time the new campus is finished.

Bus routes would develop with the student population. (a daily bus presently takes Acton students to Sheridan at Oakville).

Mr. Hinton also still hopes to see more Sheridan courses in Halton Hills, The Sheridan crafts trailer has been here two winters already.
