Headpin Hillies
Two of the girls took a run at Pat Wood's 649 high triple this week. First it was Sylvia Mages in the Blue Springs Flower Shop league, who cracked an 801. Next Marjorie Storey, bowling in the Lakeview Centre league almost made it with an 845. These triplets make my 488 triple which I bowled (and I question the word "bowled") in the Major league, look sick-bowling best over their averages to win the weekly bowling mugs in the Triano Mixed league were Kathy Jansen, Bill Genies, Steve Campbell, Don Archibald, Stew Morrison and Rupe Harmer—Industrial-Commercial league had their Christmas roll and getting the birds were Brian Larson, Don Green, Larry McAfee, Charlie Auger (I still think Chuck should have been given a saliva test after this single), Doug Lockerbie and Moc Patenaude. Getting into the spirit of '78 were George Ward, Kevin Peck, Kevin Perkins, Clint Peacock, "Shorty" Lowin and Norm White. In the "Mickey Mouse" class were Kors Vryenhoek, Rupe Harmer, Wayne Mason, Keith Andrews, Dee DeForest and Andre Conway—who winds it up once again my friendliness so adios amigos and goodnight Concord City.
