Light-weight and handy stocking stuffers at Mackenzie Lumber are Pec Wee metal measuring tapes. The six-foot length is $2.14, the 10-foot length $3.15. Manager George Wallis recommends them especially for women.

Don Gray

Royal Variety Store has combs for 39 cents and headbands for 89 cents to fill the stocking of any fashion-conscious young lady.

Gal's Pal suggests a flattering scarf for the lady on your list with a stocking-hanging on the mantel. Prices start at $2 for the colorful apparel.

Save pennies in pucks

Hinton's has something new this year that appeals to sports fans. Banks in the shape of hockey pucks are emblazoned with the name of a favorite N.H.L. team. The banks are $1.98

Hey! How about all those people who get jigsaw puzzles every Christmas, and don't know what to do with them afterward?

At Ed's In N'Out Variety, you can get a small can of Puzzle Coat, which completely laminates your masterpiece so it can be hung on the wall or left as a table mat. Em Crimless says they're $1.69.

Chocolate Santas

Acton Delleatessen sells mouth-watering chocolate Santa Claus and wise men from 39 cents for the small one, to $1.59 for the tall goodies.

That's a handy guide for the season.

Left out of the survey were food stores, restaurants, flower shops, gas stations - and these may have little stocking contributions, too. We're sorry if we missed anybody.

Happy shopping!
