

Legion town league tallies

PEEWEE—Todd Cook bagged a hat trick to help Springfield down Baltimore 7-2. Larry Small added a pair of goals for the winners, while Matthew Dupuis and John Tobies tallied singles. Bill McKenzie connected twice for the Clippers.

Two goals from the stick of Rick Goyers sparked Rochester to a 6-2 victory against Cleveland. Ted James, Joe Treccapelli, Kevin Cripps and Neil McMinn were the other Rochester marksmen. Lance Alton scored both Cleveland goals.

ATUM—Michael Cleary's hat trick and a single goal by Robbie Murray were enough to give Oshawa a 4-1 triumph over London. Mark Hallen-tyne replied for the Knights.

A pair of third period goals by Floyd Lee of Hamilton wiped out a first period tally by Robert Allen of St. Catharines and gave the Red Wings a 2-1 win over the Black Hawks.

NOVICE—Brampton got goals from Todd Andrew, Gordon March and Heath Norton, as they downed Dixie 3-1. Gordie McMeekin judged the time for the Bees.

Ryan Honnell scored two goals to lead Guelph to a 4-1 conquest of Weston. Steve Campbell and David Thomas also scored for Guelph, while Steve Taillefer scored for Weston.

BANTAM—Greg Scott, Les Dalton and Clarence Rauwerda scored for the Nordics, who tipped the Jets 3-2. Rick McNabb and Shane Withers ripped the cords for the Jets.

Cougars edged the Toros 3-2, as David Johnson netted a pair of goals and Danny Morrison shot a single. Ron Guest and Rick Pearl replied for the Toros.

Three goal efforts by Rick Gibson and Nick Humenluk carried the Aeros to a 7-4 win against the Oilers. Ted Nadhazi also lit the lamp for the winners. Bill Waites had a pair of goals and Steve Lumbers and Steve Van Der Eyken one each for the Oilers.

MIDGET—Montreal snuck past Vancouver 3-1 on goals by Rob Widmont, Al Hickey and Charlie Griese. Scott Oakley was the Canuck sniper.

Ron Kelly scored two goals and Kevin Payne, Steve McKnight, Dave Moore and Cliff Britton tallied singles for Toronto in a 6-5 win over Detroit. Rick Baginski had a pair and Peter Tatton, Will Buffet and Gary Jones one apiece for the Red Wings.

Plans near the final stage for Centennial atom tourney

Acton's Centennial sports year will come to a fitting close Friday, Saturday and Sunday December 27, 28 and 29 when the Acton (OMHA) Minor Hockey Association stages its first ever tournament, The Acton Centennial Atom "A" Tournament.

Chairman Frank Allsup announced the tournament entry list of 16 teams this week. Acton "A-B" Supermarket atoms will host the event with visiting teams being Milton, Georgetown minor atoms, Saltfleet minor and major atoms, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Brampton, Don Mills, Rexdale, Stouffville, Cooksville, Elmira, New Hamburg, Malton, Bradford, and Martingrove.

Four first round games will be played at the community centre, Friday, December 27 beginning at 12:45. Games will continue all day Saturday with the semi-finals set for Sunday. There will be both a championship and consolation series with team and individual trophies for the members of the winning teams in each series. Cope Smith of Mia Chemicals has donated the championship series trophy and Mike Kinal of Acton Home Hardware the consolation series trophy.

Assisting Chairman Allsup in organizing Acton's first representative team minor hockey tournament are, secretary Molly Allsup, treasurer Jean McPhail, rules committee members Peter Marks and Alan Hall.

Acton wins a pair in ladies basketball

Acton ladies teams won a pair of exhibition basketball games against Georgetown squads in a twin bill at Georgetown District High last Wednesday night.

With each town sending two complete 10 player squads on to the floor, Acton emerged victorious 18-14 in the first game and 18-12 in the second. Pat Wood starred for Acton in the first game, while Janice Gagnon and Sue Farr played well in the second.

Irene McCauley, wife of Neil, referee John McCauley was high scorer for Georgetown in the second game. Irene plays regularly for an "A" division team in the Borough of York senior ladies league.

Also suited up for the Georgetown teams were Marilyn McLend, Joyce Munkacs, Chris Briggs, Joanne Arnold, Susan O'Donnell, Gwen MacKenzie, Sheila Willis, Ellen Russell, and major atoms, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Brampton, Don Mills, Rexdale, Stouffville, Cooksville, Elmira, New Hamburg, Malton, Bradford, and Martingrove.

Ice coordinator Harold Townsley, timekeeper Ron McKnight, publicity directors Joanne Inscoc and Harold Townsley, awards chairman Hill Knight and executive members Pat Post and Marilyn McEachern.

"We're looking forward to a very successful tournament and we hope the people of Acton and the surrounding area will help us make it a success," Chairman Allsup said this week.

There are no plans to billet visiting boys in Acton homes, however, the tournament committee would appreciate hearing from residents, who would be willing to put a player or two up for a night in the event unfavorable weather conditions exist and make travelling hazardous. Persons, who would like to volunteer are asked to get in touch with Molly Allsup in Rockwood at 856-4234.

Admission for each day of the three day event will be just 50 cents.

Strong's first goal not enough

Mike Strong's first goal of the season was not enough to keep Acton Y's Men's peewees from dropping a 2-1 Waterloo-Wellington league decision to Fergus here Saturday afternoon.

In spite of the loss, coach Barry Inscoc was pleased with the play of his young defence brigade and forwards Dave Brown and Mike Marshall.

Scid goaltending by Andy Ellerby in the Acton nets kept Orangeville from adding to their totals.

Raiders split

Sharp offensive play by winger Tom Gilbert and centre Ray Evans and solid defensive work helped Mike Tarp's Georgetown Chrysler Raiders halt a five game Fort Erie Maverick winning streak with a 5-2 win in front of 425 fans at Georgetown Memorial Arena Friday night.

Gilbert, Raiders' top goalgetter during the '73-74 regular season bagged his 5th, 6th and 7th goals of the season, while Evans boosted himself to fifth place in the OHA Intermediate "A" league scoring race with a one goal, three assist effort.

Mike Tarp's Georgetown Chrysler Raiders continued their "win a game, lose a game" pattern of play when they lost 5-3 to Oakville.
