

Manpower counsellor

Mrs. Mercedes Lyons, counsellor of the Acton branch of the Canada Manpower Centre, has returned to the head office in Brampton and has been replaced by Jim Pappas.

According to a spokesman Mrs. C. K. Robertson for Mrs. Lyons, counsellors are transferred periodically so they don't lose contact with other communities.

The Manpower Centre, located in the Community Credit Union building, is open on Fridays only for prospective employees. The rest of the week, the counsellors are busy making contacts, setting up interviews, and looking for jobs for their clients.

THE BUS HAS begun to look familiar to the residents of Acton. The merchants overruled council, and went ahead with the Christmas shopping bus, which so far has been successful.

Obituary

Sarah Burling

Sarah Burling, of 119 Poplar Ave., died in Guelph General Hospital on December 12. Mrs. Burling was born on January 4, 1895.

She is survived by her husband Albert Burling of Toronto, her children, Luella (Mrs. Hamilton), Toronto; Pearl, (Mrs. Raymond), Kingston; Viola, (Mrs. Foster) and Kenneth Burling, Acton, Pat, (Mrs. Cholak), Windsor; Betty, (Mrs. Mehin), Toronto, and Sadie (Mrs. Waterman), Malton.

Mrs. Burling is also survived by a sister and brother, Fred Matt, Kirkland Lake, and Orlean Matt, of Milton Manor.

Funeral took place on December 16 at the Ward Funeral Home on Weston Road with Rev. Thoman officiating. Interment was at the Glenvale Memorial Gardens in Toronto.

Pallbearers were grandsons Garry Foster, Floyd Foster, George Forrest, Bill Raymond, Brian Cholack and Larry Waterman.

Bertha C. Nellis

Funeral services for Bertha C. Nellis were held at the Humley-Shoemaker funeral home on Wed., Dec. 4.

Mrs. Nellis was born in Erin Township in 1885, daughter of the late James Clark and Mary Langford. She attended Greenock school before moving to Nassagaweya where she attended S.S. No 2 public school.

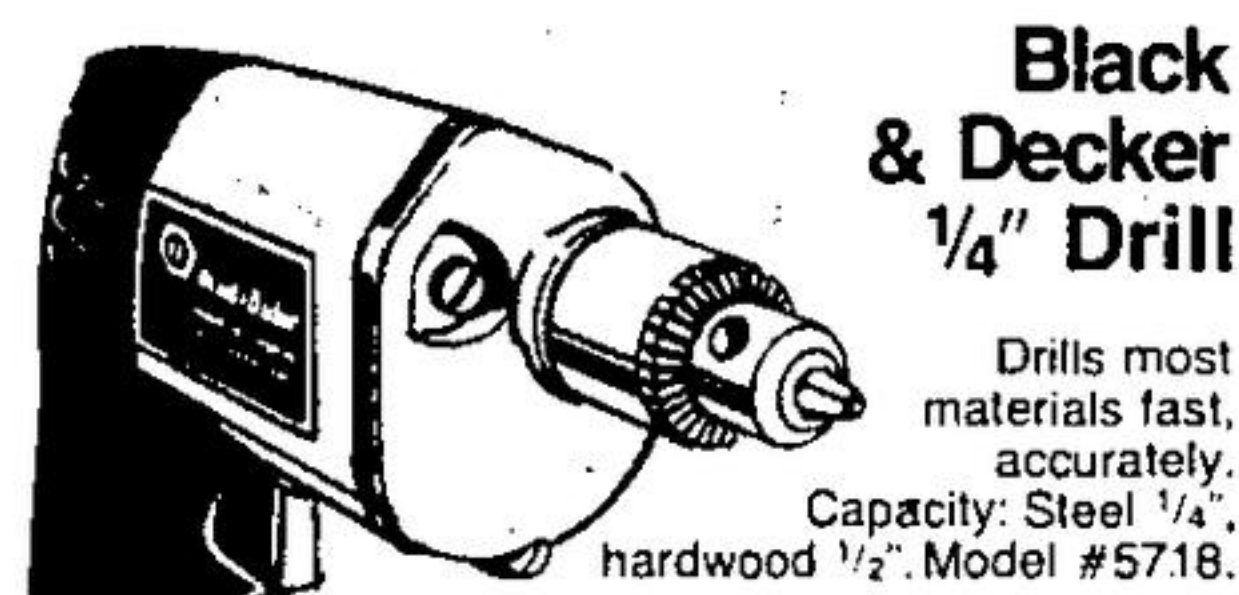

In 1913 she was married to Thomas B. Nellis, and they lived at R.R. 1, Acton until his death in 1949. She moved to Acton in 1956 where she lived until almost two years ago, when she became a patient at Eden House Nursing Home.

Mrs. Nellis was a member of Ebenezer United Church before her marriage and later Trinity United Church Acton, where she attended regularly.

She is survived by one son Mansell of R.R. 1, Acton; five grandsons, seven great-grandchildren and a sister Florence, Mrs. Thomas Diamond, Milton. She was predeceased by a sister Lorrissa, (Mrs. Alex Border) and a brother Alex Clark, both of Campbellville.

Rev. Eric Nelson officiated at the service, and interment was at Fairview cemetery.

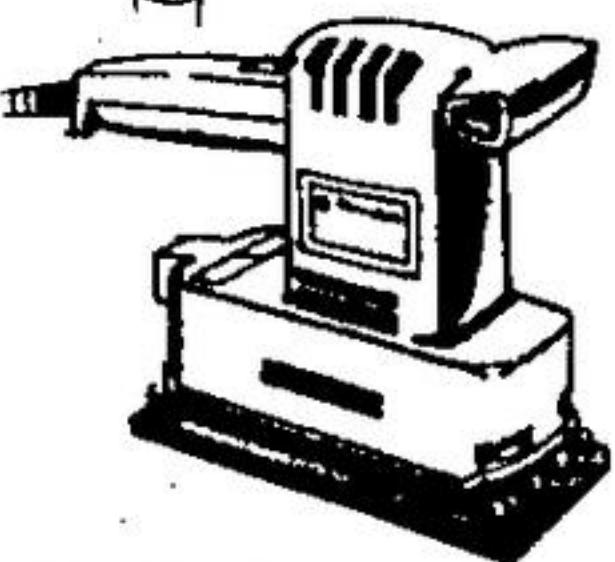

Pallbearers were nephews Arthur Diamond, William Johnston and grandsons Lloyd, Roy, Rae and Ralph Nellis.
