Pageant fills service hour

A Christmas pageant filled the hour of regular morning worship at Trinity United Church Sunday, Dec. 15. Members of the Sunday school participated and the only adult taking a part was Mrs. Helen Little of the choir who acted as narrator. Two large Christmas banners hung at the front of the church, one made by the Sunday School superintendent Sue Dunn and her family. Flat tree There were two normally decorated trees, and another unique flat wooden one crisscrossed with pieces of sticky tape. After the participants in the pageant had gone through the church gathering up donations for Oxfam, they stuck the envelopes all over this third Christmas tree. Flimsy tissue paper snowflakes beautifully decorated the windows for the season. The congregation sang appropriate carols and the choir sang anthems, making the reading and presentation of the Christmas story an hour-long production. After the traditional rules had been acted out, the "children of the world" in costume came two-by-two down the aisle. The choir sang Some Children See Him, referring to the colors of the races of the world. Dressed ranging from a Polynesian to an Eskimo were Ricky Allen, Carmen Glow, Rodney Dunn, Wendy Dunn, Barbie Mellon, Michael Ormsby, Linda Sawden and Ian Sawden. Inpageant Wendy Hillman had the role of Mary, Russell Allen was Joseph, Gill Hobbs was the inn keeper and Karen Coals the star holder. Angels were Sandra Bendicks, Kathy Coals, Wendy Dedman, Lynda Dunn, Marie Lamarche, Debbie Murchison, Nancy Patterson, shepherds Jimmy Allen, Kevin Glow, Clifford Dedman, Nancy Frank; kings in magnificent costumes made of sari materials were Corrine Andrews, Gary Dunn, Michele Jones. Readers were Robert Allen, Juanita Andrews and Mark Sawden. Sunday School adults helping were Sue and John Dunn, Mrs. Lillian Eaton, Karen Hillman, Cathy McGillivray and Joyce Ribey, with special thanks expressed to Dorothy and Ken Allen, Arlene Bruce, Betty Comfort, George Elliott and the choir, Lorene Jones, Steve Ormsby, Mrs. Murchison and Ian McGillivray. A large crowd stayed for the coffee hour afterward, sending the organizers rushing out for more supplies.

Youth bowling

Youth Bowling in Canada this year has almost reached the mark of 62,000, with half of this coming from Ontario. One method of calculating the registration leaders is to calculate them on a per lane basis. In Southern Ontario C.F.B. Trenton is on top place with an average of 58 per lane. We are pleased to announce the tremendous and appreciated work going into Youth Bowling in Acton.

first place Spiders kept up their winning ways, as they won two points from the Chicks. Consistent bowling was the main factor in their victory. The Chippinkas remained ahead of the Cows in the league standings, as they won two points from the Hoppers. Brian Larsen bowled an excellent 698 triple and a high single of 311 to pace them to their victory. The Gold Ones are knocking down everyone in their way. Their victims today were the Gold Ones who were defeated in all three games. Susan Thompson's 583 was tops for her team.

For the other three. The Capers destroyed the Hatters in all three games to place them in second place in the league standings. Bob Housfield was tops for his team with a 571 triple. The Hot Ones crept out of last place and into fourth place with today's win over the Hippies. Brian Larsen bowled an excellent 698 triple and a high single of 311 to pace them to their victory.
