

ART CREATIVITY AT ROCKWOOD Centennial school over Christmas has been a delight of scenes, painted figures, and clever caricatures of Santa Clauses, reindeer, sleighs and wagons. Art teacher Mona Storey has managed to bring her abilities to the fore in Nativity scenes and other art specialties. On entering the school at the Dec. 18 Christmas concert, parents and visitors had to stop and view the beautiful stained glass windows created by students of teachers Diana Young and John Jackson.

STAINED GLASS windows are the clever achievements of Bette Coulson's grade three class. Children at the school were encouraged to create their own ideas and many of the areas of the school were decorated with unique people and festive murals. Much of the work was done in anticipation of parent perusal at the Annual Christmas concert held Dec. 18 for kindergarten to grade five children. Grade sixers were the ones who made the decorations.

ROCKWOOD CENTENNIAL halls have been beehives of activity this past week with students and teachers working industriously on murals and decorations. Seen working on the floor, getting a scene together for the gymnasium walls are Annette Druif, and Beth Clark, both ten-year-old students of Mrs. Diane Young, the grade five teacher. The scenes are part of the Christmas decor prepared for the annual school concert.

LOOK AT ALL THOSE people and little Steven Ostrander, 5 is slightly amazed at the large group in attendance at the Dec. 15 Rockwood United Church Christmas luncheon and concert. His big brother Kenneth, 15, is in charge of pulling curtains. For Steven it's his first stage performance and he's really excited.

Christmas Season Folklore Time

Christmas legends and Christmas folklore is fascinating whether true or not. There are innumerable tales that form the traditions of the holiday season.

Animals are prominently mentioned in many legends and customs. One Christmas legend tells of the little gray lamb with a longing heart to be white. It wandered to the dwelling of the Holy Family, lingering at the door. The Christ Child, seeing the lamb, beckoned it in. He laid his hand on its head, and it became white as snow.

Sweeds, Norwegians, and the Swiss make it a special point to be extremely friendly and hospitable on Christmas, both to domestic pets and wild birds.

A persistent Christmas legend is that bees hum a carol in honor of the Christ Child. In England, holly is placed on the hive to wish the bees a Merry Christmas.

JOY COMES BACK
Christmas should be a happy time for children. Yet, for many, Christmas is a time of sadness. Perhaps it's because their dreams haven't come true. They feel that maybe Christmas is only for others, not for them. But their dream can come true—for The Salvation Army, with your help, can bring a measure of happiness to less fortunate children. Remember, the joy that we give to others is the joy that comes back to us.

May all the joys of the Christmas Season be yours

Art display

The Wellington County Board of Education recently purchased a trailer which is easily moved from school to school for use by Corbett Gray, art consultant.

The trailer presently houses a collection of student art gathered by the Red Cross Youth Division. It will visit the Eramosa township public school in January with another art display.

Lost articles

Area schools report that, since the coming of winter, there has been an increase in the number of collected articles. Mittens, scarfs and hats rate high on school lists. Parents should check in on schools and retrieve lost articles before the end of the school term.

School breaks in Eramosa are set for Friday, Dec. 20 until Monday, Jan. 6 at 9 a.m.

Drive safely

Drivers coming onto high ways should always ensure they're well ahead of oncoming vehicles before making their move. Many accidents are caused by thoughtless ness and miscalculation. Let cars pass in the safest way. During seasonal slush and snow it's often difficult to slow down easily without losing control.
