Assists went to Alton, Dave Mitchell, David Swanson and Chris Hudson. Tom Galloway had a pair of goals, Gary Steel and Kevin McLaren singles for the Clippers. Steel, John Griese and Tom Galloway picked up assists. Springfield and Rochester battled to a 1-1 draw with Brian Holmes scoring on a pass from Scott Page for Springfield and Ken Denth replying for Rochester on a pass from Rick Guymers.

ATOM—St. Catharines downed Oshawa 6-3 on a four goal effort by W. Cochrane, Bob Brouillard and D. Taras tallied the other goals. Brouillard and Briggs picked up assists. Robbie Munro, Scott McLaren and Mike McCreary connected for the Generals. Assists went to Scott Petty (2) and Mike McCreary (1).

Hamilton and London played to a 1-1 draw. Henry Schmit scored for Hamilton. Robin Wilkes bulged the twine for London with help from Paul Nolan.

NOVICE—Kent Hurst's two goal effort helped Dixie shut out Weston 4-0. Jerry Harrington and Gord McMeekin also scored for the Bees with Harrington.

Redmen surprise Lancers with improved play Tridents

JUNIOR REDMEN centre Brian Larsen battles Georgetown Rebels for the ball. Improvement in the Acton High midget and junior teams has surprised coaches from around the Halton Region.

The Lancers of Burlington's Lord Elgin High School found out the Acton High midget and junior Redmen are no longer the patsies they once were, as Halton high schools basketball action continued here this week.

The midget Redmen upped their record to 2-1 with a 56-46 win over Lord Elgin, while the Acton juniors went down to a 63-48 defeat, but surprised the visitors with their improvement in play over last season.

Paul Bowen scored 28 points to spark the Acton midget win. Don Coats netted 16, John Nesset 5, Gord Bruce 3, Pete Zions 2 and Brad Buchanan 2. John Nesset was Acton's top defensive player. Brian Larsen was outstanding in a losing cause for the juniors. He scored 27 points. Dan Webster hooped 15 and Mike McGregor, Marvin McNabb and Rick Van Fleet 2 apiece. McGregor and McNabb both played tight defensive games. Against the Georgetown re-bels last Wednesday the juniors put up a tremendous battle before losing 67-62. Brian Larsen led Acton scorers with 27 points. Dan Webster had 17, Rick Van Fleet 10, Peter Tilton and Marvin McNabb 4 each and Dave Mills 2. Van Fleet earned the defensive player of the game honors.

In an exhibition game the midget Redmen whipped Georgetown's second string juniors 63-24, as Don Coats scored 22 points, Paul Bowen 13, Pete Zions 8, Gord Bruce 7, Brad Buchanan 6, John Nesset 5, Jim Matthews 2. Top defensive player for Acton was Pete Zions.

Couch Rick McArthur says his teams will face their toughest test of the season when the Burlington Nelson Lords play here tomorrow (Thursday). Nelson has an excellent reputation for producing good high school basketball teams.

SHARON CAMPBELL PASSED her Bronze Free Skating test in the figure skating test on January 16. Monday night she practiced her Three Jump.

Youth bowling

January 18—Paying a visit to the Acton Bowling Lanes today was the Y.B.C. Zone representative for Zone F. George Archibald, Mr. Archibald talked with all Y.B.C. staff and as an added attraction, presented the weekly crests to our Bantams' second shift.

First Shift
The second place Frogs were defeated by the Birds by a booming margin to win all three points. Jaye Gorth led them to their victory with her 232 double. The Snowmen started off great by winning the first game from the first place Octopuses but the Octopuses poured on the pressure to win the last game and total 74 four pins. Ted Loring was tops in his team with a 241 double. 1. Hippies weren't fooling around as they won two points from the Humpty Dumplies. In the first game, Ron Murchison bowled 53 pins over his average and Lynn Phillips bowled 25 pins over her average to win pop and chocolate bars for the Hippies. Congratulations, Hippies!

Second Shift
The Snakes upset the second place Owls in both games. It was a close battle as the Snakes only won totals by nine points. Leading the way for the Snakes was Sandee Allonby and Kim White, both with 242 doubles. Steven Muckle also of the Snakes, bowled 48 pins over his average in the first game, to win pop for his team. The Pigs were no competition for the Turtles who defeated them in both games.

John Rayner's 293 was tops for his team. Today's win places the Turtles in a strong hold on third place in the league standings. The first place Hawks kept their winning ways with a two-point victory over the Dragons. Melissa Harris was tops for her team as she bowled a 235 double.

Third Shift
The Horses were too powerful for the Cows, as they galloped away with all three points. Ted James led the way for the Horses with a 230 double. The Chipmunks remained in fourth place in the league standings with their two point victory over the Chicks. Joel Pink was the big gun for the Chipmunks with a 278 double. The Dogs upset the first place spiders in both games. Bob Felker led them to their victory with a 315 double. Geoff Saxon also of the Dogs bowled 29 pins over his average to win pop for his team. The Dogs are only one and a half points behind first place.

Top Ten—Yon Phillips 310 (191), Bob Felker 315 (173), John Adams 311 (166), Geoff Saxon 303 (161), John Rayner 293 (185), Melissa Harris 293 (172), Mardelle Phillips 280 (141), Ron Murchison 279 (148), Joel Pink 278 (146), Steven Muckle 273 (163).

Committee backs arena

Halton Hills administration committee wholeheartedly backed the suggestion that the new arena be named after the late Gordon Alcott, founder of the Little N.H.L. Chairman Dick Howitt wondered if the public should be asked to submit names.

Mayor Tom Hill pointed out what happened when the public was asked to submit names for the new town. He said there was no other name as fitting as Gordon Alcott. "This man started hockey in Georgetown."

The rest of the committee agreed and will send the suggestion to council.

Pallett now top goalie
Raider goalie Keith Pallett now has the top individual goaltending average among OHA Intermediate "A" goalies who have played at least half their team's games. Pallett has a 3.92 average for 13 games.

Pressmen, welders clinch playoff berths

Blow Press and Van's Welding moved into the Acton Industrial Hockey League playoff picture along with Station Hotel, scoring runaway wins Sunday night. The hotelers remained unbeaten with a 3-1 win over Lakeview Centre.

The pressmen crushed Hellers 15-7 with Jack Gudgeon and Jim Kavanagh scoring four goals apiece and one of their best players John Kavanagh on the sidelines with an injury. Larry McAfee helped fill the void with a two goal, six assist effort. Gary Lewis bagged a hat trick, while Rob Townsend and Doug Simpkins tallied single goals.

Chick Milne, Leo Kavanagh and Lloyd Smallwood potted a pair of goals apiece and Dave Pappilon a single for Hellers.
