Greenis family receive tribute

former village couple last Wednesday night when members and past members of the Rockwood and District Lions Club and their wives enjoyed a dinner at the Centennial public school.

The occasion was a farewell supper for one of the instigators of the local chib. Jim Greenis and his wife Donna, former president of the Lionettes Club in Rockboose

Sixty-four people were to attendance At completion of the dinner the club's first president, Harry Bonner care a few words of praise to tion Greenis for his תוי מאנשלחומים שישלמשימיוו

Centennial School

Praffit start of

had re di nul subret mi onlians with a chairs of compastics and chotheness. the club arts and crafts Canara stant stantantent. and instumental

THE THEM IT THE WARD IN THAT the setting's secure edition in ing Month's Mount a not We be made $10.50 it sules so iar Alors news is that there une the student entitles in the school for the next few works Alm All und Alm

V. ASIERTIT. it severes hask-thal are ruis on the two team have begun. Purpers are preparant the a thurmanness in this February Grades inc. for and six have started hievene rederenal one teams torve जिल्ला अस्ट यहा

A tribute was paid to a organizing and keeping the club moving while a resident of the village. Mr. Bonner said that it was Jim's forsight which had brought the club into a reality and that it was through much of his effort that the tremendous project of the community centre was

> Presentation President Jim Milne spoke benefit. On behalf of the Lions, the couple were presented with an oil painting of the village mill The past chib treasurer. Mr. Greenis said be and his family were sorry to leave the community. in which they had bred for the past her wars. He said be was now establishing humself in Stribution where he has moved and the men's clashing is thick a to be seemed אים הו אלת או זכר ביש משחל erts community organiza-תשונה שמת אהל הה אחור

Mr Greens was the fermer hand manager of the Royal Flank in Rankward his wife dantement as east among active member of the Lappettes and their two children were students at he certerms school and belanged to the Jr. Auxiliary a St. John - Anglican chimch framme their stay in the village the Greens tamile mad made many triends dis art four anituditations as the the accuminations in which they were important cores

The Lane Club president summed up the tecling of the evening when he tald those present at the Wednesday timeer that the couple will be tern must massed in the After the presentation lables were theated and labes Club mentions conducted their regular heweekly meeting

The Feb 15 dance was discussed Four ladies were appointed to handle tockets

including, Mrs Bernice

FORMER PRESIDENTS of the Rockwood and District Lions and Lionettes, Harry Bonner and Leona Kingsbury made a special presentation last Wednesday night. They are seen with Jim and Donna Greenis, past members of the two clubs, who recently moved to Shelburne The couple were invited back to the village to receive a gift as a memento of their important efforts towards the clubs' inceptions.

Blood donors needed C.W.L. ladies learn

Fourteen members attended the Rockwood and Oustic Catholic Romen's League (CWL) January meeting, it was held at the home of Mrs. Nellie Stokman. Bacon, and Mrs. Aksamit. on Wed., Jan. 8, with both of Rockwood, Mrs. Irene president, Marjorie Saunders, Hawkins, and Mrs. Nellie-

The president thanked the committee reported that members for their assistance lickets were now available at the Christmas party: she with the Hockwood town full also reported that all Right of rented in advance. A bus trip Life Christmas cards had was planned for Jan. 26 The been sold. It was decided a ladies will visit the O'Keefe donation of $2 will be sent to centre in Toronto where Hal the National Scholarship fund. Holbrook is being featured as for the Sacred Heart Mark Twain program.

GRCA

walk

Witter Experience

to all who attend

Stekman of Oustic. The

Blood donating and the great need of donors at this time of year came under consideration Members were their generous donations. It arreed to attend a blood donor chine in Gaelph. It was also decided to purchase a new stone for the norish house. and to send a cheque for the care of the group's foster child in Guatemal and a donation of $25 to the John Bases home for boys

World prayer The UWL will host the district World Day of Prayer program this year on the first Friday of May, It will be held at the Sacred Heart Church in Rockwood Father Olinski was also present at the meeting lie thanked those present for their assistance during the Christmas and for

was decided that the next meeting will be held at the home of the president. The meeting was adjourned with the introduction to the guest speaker of the evening. Ron

Mr. Griffen spoke about the John Rosco homes for teenage boys. The young menrange in age from 12 to 16. "Up to 18 if they're still attending school," he said. The peaker said there are many boys in training schools today who do not belong there. He families where relationships are hostile.

He talked about life at the homes. He said the boys have chores and are responsible for cleaning their own bedrooms. He said they have homework periods and a 9,30 p m curfew on school nights. According to Mr. Griffen the staff lives in and relies completely on donations for their operation. "They are a nonprofit organization," he explained

The speaker was thanked pointed out that the homes by Mrs Marg Sennhauser for are to assist wherever an enlightening and inpossible and explained that Teresting talk She presented the boys are usually homeless him with the C.W.L. cheque.

ONE MONTH LATE, Rockwood Centennial school children are tucked in their beds for a long winter's nap in the Christmas concert enactment of 'Twas The Night Before Christmas by room 9, grade six children. Tucked in are Sylvia Schelkle, Sherri Brace, Monty Noble and Mike

Sidewalk

Snow

New people on the job of snowplowing Highway through the village of Rockwood was the reason given by the Department of Transportation and munications for large mounds of snow being piled on village streets during excessive snowclearing

GRCA in which they hope to involve outdoor enthusiasts in many recreational activities

periods. Complaints of snow being pushed onto village sidewalks were discussed by Rockwood trustees at their Jan. 6 meeting. Secretary Len Hockey was instructed to contact the Department. He was informed there were new operators on the job in the area and the procedure would be checked.

Car and truck collision

A car and truck accident occurred on Jan. 18 at the Wellington County Hd 29 at Sideroad 20 of Eramosa township resulting in $2,400

A van, driven by Stephen Smith of R.R.3, Rockwood was travelling east on the county road when it came into collision with a car driven by Francis Stokman of R.R.5, Rockwood. The Stokman vehicle was moving north on Sideroad 20. Passengers in the Stokman car, Francis and Peter, received minor cuts and bruises.

Shop and Save at

a group of men's SPORT JACKETS

HALF-PRICE

John Benham will chair 1975 Eramosa planning board

The inaugural meeting of the 1975 Eramosa planning board was held Jan. 16 at the township council chambers. Elections were held with resilts showing John Denham chairman, John Turner as vice chairman and George Day, secretary. Other members present were Hill Garner, Ted Cargo, Richard Strong, Allan Osborne and reeve Hill Adsett.

During hustness the board for re-coning and one presen tation for a subdivision pro- in the vallage, Secretary posal. All applicants were ad- George Day was requested to vised that a period of eight to send a letter to the trustees nine months would be required to process amendments to the official plan and ing board to pulge the ments zoning by law. They were informed that no decision could trustees also requested he made until the process bad consideration for faulding on been completed

Trusten's letter A letter, was read as rerelyed from the linksout tribleen They had requested discussed two applications consideration of appaired of · The Aquarable becould a salate

Eramosa girl is two-time winner

The Chulph 411 Award large that member to Besty Night was hold at Burrie fill Charps Church on Tuesday, Journay 14 Over 120 people attended the banquet and now 10 4 Hers receive awards Clubs receiving awards were the Guelph Call Club. ted by 110b tholgson, Torn Reinburt and thery Houghton. the South Wellington Field Crop Club led by Larry Dickleson and John Gordon, and the South Wellington Horse Club led by Mr. and Mrs Tim Dunlop. The sponsoring organization, the tinelph Pederation of Agriculture and the Exin Agriculture Society were thanked by everyone in altendance.

Dr. Robert Curtis from the University of Guelph was the speaker guest congratulated the members on their work and showed a most interesting set of slides on his recent stay in New Zealand.

Horse club awards

The following horse club trophies were presented to members to the South Wellington 4-H Horse Club, Maple Leaf Mills trophy by Leon McQuade to Susan Ormesher, top English overall competitor; United Co-operatives to Joyce Bruder by Doug Allen as top overall competitor and the McNamara Carpets trophy to Jodi Veldman as the top western competitor. Tim and Sue Dunlop presented a trophy for the most improved

The fullments Brood Annual Hiller a antila neek or edge matchett habitean Hal your mountains note given in Hagh Historia Innella Muser, Hiden Cley. hum and Inda track About Wills be Stage & Husseles Makel Bushin, Justin Charlesed and builded transfel therefore fired fatel total good with negliphing to the Butteres and given to Tony tengin Hereford exects and a radio year autorription to the Ingest was presented to Terry Lamont Secan Lament, and busan freighty Award of theest cretificates were distributed to members attaining 75 percent corn pletjon, six clubs, Terry amont and Bruce Duck twelve clubs, Mary Benthart and Dan Mitchell Rob Mitchell received an it seal certificate:

The E. A. Hales Memorial Trophy was presented by Alf Ifales to the exhibitor of the top 4-H steer at the Aberloyle Fair. The winner was Ken Jackson, Iris Lambert won the Royal Bank silver trav presented by V. Burgess to the top homemaking club member in Guelph township. Sally Parkinson, for the second year in a row, won the Chamber of Commerce award presented by John Tremlett to the top Guelph Calf Club member. It was a very successful Awards Night for the community and the 4-H members.

advising that it is not within the jurisdiction of the plann of any particular system The single lide if the avaing, and Installed After Americanon the Vanithan plantable tours affected to exclusioned to the whichlife the shall that whe though he house in the inc with finhitmeth stange listings ted atter which in time jeda of the defiled tarifound Here and plan

111 111 strings tool for con-

Africa cornect at the meeting note Hornerd Smith and Walt win I Mariah Id In Meri and Strate planning accordingly for the termentie a more iful im Kate to not water attained for the general of Mathematical a concer of the Michael than and interment try law in it pertains in play later It is intropped in the A rach montante of the enement in east in gettier thereiste appropriat it in Industry Musicipal stored will the in comment in the accomments in differences nicky to be a havingon and bearings will be post the premature is arguited in the remo right to other mother

Cont of the review is estimater at about $5,100 to the township if will be subsidized by the grevineral government to the amount of $2500. The thewarting planning tenera felt that the soning by law should he operators as it was their orition up in link

Accident

A land now are thent on there I in Heddand & tin it eximited in it was decouple in the militains surfaces

W. Bleton of defects Envision which it ever in many a selection of the Sp. som in a face of the Charles and all rights

Prof house CAUSA THINHAM

cents tend in the conerected over to some destent it will be a to it there steer the and the to they're a place rate, Sign of the administration of the party a control polici i e tali ca con con

Thompson SHEET METAL 23 Landigan to Cal REPU 821-1511

We are Craftsmen in:

- * Air Conditioning
- * Exhaust Systems.
- * Heating

TODAY!!

49¢

89¢

ACTON, ONT. MARKETS

SHORT RIB ROAST 994

POINT BRISKET $1.09₆ ROAST

1 lb. pkg. Burn's 79¢ WIENERS

Campfire 1 lb. vac pak $1.29 SIDE BACON

Burn's FARM STYLE SAUSAGE

69¢

CEE Grade 5 fb. beg

Canada No. 1 WAX TURNIPS

Canada No. 1 SNOW WHITE MUSHROOMS

104 85¢ b.

• GROCERY FEATURES •

Carnation

Pack 2 rolls 49‡

CREAM

APPLE JUICE Del Monte

1 15. First Grade

BUTTER Rose-Dale

Foodland

Green Glant 12 oz. can

CORN

5 lb. bag WHITE SUGAR

WE ARE OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK TO OFFER YOU LOW MEAT, BROCERY AND PRODUCE PRICES!