

Centennial cagers champs of Red and White tourney

CENTENNIAL BOYS who won the Red and White tournament championship are Dean Spittal, Brian Scott, Dave Pierce, Bob Doyle, Terry Waldrum, Mike Crichton, Jeff Gimpel, Rick Fisher, Kevin Neill, Mark Bingham, Jeff Temple and John Karolidis. Coaches are Mike Hopwood and Jim Atkinson.

Centennial school boys copped the championship of the first annual Acton High Red and White basketball tournament for public schools, when they beat their cross-town rivals Stewarttown 33-28 in the championship final Saturday night.

The champs whipped Brookville 48-24 in the first round and downed Fairview of Burlington 26-22 in the semi-finals.

Stewarttown made it to the finals with a 23-22 win over Milton Martin St. and a 36-32 triumph over Oakville Montclair.

John Karolidis scored 10 points for Centennial in the final game. Terry Waldrum netted 8, Kevin Neill 7, Rick Fisher 4, Jeff Gimpel 2 and Jeff Temple 1.

For Stewarttown Mike McMenomy tossed in 10 to lead the way.

Terry Waldrum was high scorer for Centennial with 9 points against Fairview. Waldrum was also high scorer against Brookville with 15.

Brookville won the consolation championship with a 36-34 win over Milton Martin St.

Chris Connor of Brookville, one of the tournament's outstanding players, scored 15 points for his team in the consolation championship game, 21 against M. Z. Bennett and 22 against Centennial.

Branding out the Brookville scoring in the consolation final were Dave Zorocko with 11, Martin Osso 9 and Denny Melancon 2.

Acton's entries, Robert Little and M. Z. Bennett schools failed to win a game. Bert Post totalled 24 points in two games to lead Robert Little scorers, Bruce McPhail and Wade Vickery were the individual scoring stars in a losing cause for the Bennett team. McPhail had 21 points in two games and Vickery 18 in two games.

Members of the Acton High midget and junior cage squads handled refereeing assignments for the tournament.
