

Obituary

E.R. Carton

Well-known district resident Elmer Roy Carton of R.R. 1, Rockwood, died in Milton district hospital on Feb. 25. He was 80 years of age and had been ill for the previous four weeks.

Mr. Carton was a blacksmith for many years around the Campbellville area and was also a farmer. He worked at P. L. Robertson manufacturing company in Milton for about 20 years.

Rev. W. A. Dempsey conducted the funeral at the McKersie funeral home, Milton, on Feb. 27. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery, Milton. Pallbearers were Romeo Landon, Rockwood; Don Small, Campbellville; Jack McPhail, Campbellville; Lloyd Lucas, Rockwood; Gordon Harding, Rockwood; and Don McLean, Campbellville. All are neighbors.

Survivors

Mr. Carton was born May 14, 1914, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Carton. He and his wife Kathleen were married in 1938 at Brampton. They lived 19 years at Campbellville before moving to R.R. 1, Rockwood.

He is survived by his wife; daughters and son Charlotte (Mrs. Bob) Lawrence, Acton; Helen (Mrs. Lorne) McLean, Acton; and Robert at home; sisters Marie Pocock, Milton; Isabella Downs, Milton; Myrtle Hunter, Norval; brother Lloyd Carton, Toronto; Earl Carton, Oakville and Gerald Carton, Milton, and six grandchildren.

SKATATHON is being planned by a Rotary committee of Phil McCristall, Wayne Moss, chairman Gary Dawkins and Dave Manes. Entry forms will go out to the schools for the upcoming fund-raising event. Profits will be split for school and Rotary projects.

Annie Wheeler funeral Mar. 1

After an illness of six weeks, Annie Christina (Black) Wheeler of 218 Churchill Rd. N. died in Guelph General Hospital Feb. 27.

Mrs. Wheeler is survived by her husband Vernon, daughters Patricia Henderson, 198 Churchill Rd. S., and Margaret (Peggy) Grace, 244 McDonald Blvd., Acton, and grandson Jason. She was predeceased by parents John Black and Mary Jane Blacklock and brother John, R. R. 1, Acton.

She had lived on Churchill Rd. for the past 24 years. She was born in Nausaguweya in 1916.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers were friends Stu Lantz, Charles Gough; cousin Lloyd Blacklock and Claude Twiss; nephews Keith King and Bill Spielvogel.

Help! says Collison

Haltom Hills administration committee conceded the recreation department needed another secretary, Monday night. The committee recommended hiring of a secretary, and the purchase of a desk, chair and typewriter to accommodate her.

Recreation director Doug Collison pointed out two staff members had been added to the administrative staff, two pool supervisors had been added, and new facilities added, while the recreation department still had the one secretary.

Baha'i celebrate

On Friday, Mar. 21, the Baha'is of Haltom Hills will join members of the Baha'i community throughout the world in celebrating Naw-Ruz, the Baha'i New Year. The Haltom Hills Baha'is will be holding a Naw-Ruz feast on Thurs. Mar. 20. They will be inviting friends to the Naw-Ruz party on Friday, Mar. 21.

Don Weaver, chairman of the Haltom Hills Baha'i assembly, explained that the Baha'i faith, which originated in Iran (then Persia) in 1844, has a calendar of its own. It is based on the solar year and consists of 19 months, each with 19 days. The year is equalized by four intercalary days (five in leap year), preceding the last Baha'i month. The new year coincides with the vernal equinox.

Prior to Naw-Ruz, Mr. Weaver said, Baha'is the world over, observe a nineteen day period of fasting from sunrise to sunset to refresh and invigorate their spiritual lives. They celebrate the new year at the advent of spring, a time which mankind naturally associates with renewal and rebirth.

On the Baha'i calendar, this is 132. The Baha'is faith began in 1844 A.D. of the Christian calendar, when the prophet herald of the religion, proclaimed himself the forerunner of the Promised One of all the Ages. Baha'is believe, Mr. Weaver explained, that Baha'u'llah, whose name means "The Glory of God", is the Prophet of God for this day and that He has come to usher in a new era in human development when all peoples of the world will be united.

Some of the principles upon which this unity will be based, are the need for a world government, the elimination of prejudices of all kinds,
