

Obituary

Matt Tyler was Arizona resident

WELL-known here, Matt Tyler died suddenly in Phoenix, Arizona, Feb. 18. He was active in sports.

The family and friends of Matthew A. Tyler were shocked at his sudden death on Tuesday, February 18 after a brief illness of influenza and pneumonia. Mr. Tyler, age 66, was the son of the late Edward Tyler and Rose Singleton. On November 9, 1929 he married Edna Catherine Joque of Acton, formerly of Bracebridge, Ontario. He resided at 4140 East Turney, Phoenix, Arizona. He was born in England and attended public and high school in Acton. He served in the Canadian Army from 1940 to 1945, where he was wounded in action in France. While residing in Acton he was employed with Beardmore and Company, Department of Highways and the Liquor Control Board of Ontario. Mr. Tyler, before retiring January of 1974, had been an automobile salesman in Phoenix after moving to Arizona 20 years ago. Sports Mr. Tyler was a member of the St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton and St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Phoenix. He bowled weekly in the Early Bird Bowling League and was a former baseball player, being very active in all phases of sports his entire life. He thoroughly enjoyed and attended all school activities and sports events with his grandchildren. His family strength and guidance will never be forgotten. Survivors include his wife Edna Catherine (Joque); son and daughters Robert of Simi, California; Carol (Mrs. R. Wallis) of Phoenix; Lorraine (Mrs. R. Gritman) of Scottsdale, Arizona; grandchildren Tom, Cathy and Beth Tyler, and Brad and Javette Wallis. He was a brother of Lillian Stapleton and Edward Tyler of Acton, George of London, Charles of Georgetown and Phyllis Huffman of Burlington. Fullbearers were brothers George and Charles Tyler, grandsons Brad Wallis and Tom Tyler and friends C. L. Wallace and C. L. Beard. Interment was at Greenwood Memorial Cemetery, Phoenix, Arizona.

YOU COULD spend hours playing with a set of trains like the set-up of James Colter. Cubs are Jim Barton of Acton, Geoffrey Cannon of Georgetown, Geoffrey Simmons of Georgetown, Kirt Sequens and James Colter. District cubs met together in Georgetown last Saturday.

Good turnout for Golden Age club

By Mrs. Elaine Reed Games, trips, a social time and a pleasant lunch keep up a good turnout at the Golden Age Club. A trip to Georgetown and one to Kitchener to the Ice Capades were discussed. Members were pleased to learn that both Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery were able to return from Guelph hospital to their home on Wilbur St. before Mrs. McEnery's birthday on March 4. Several other birthdays coming up in March include Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Cutts, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. DeVries. Mr. and Mrs. Max Milne celebrate their wedding anniversary in March.

Winners in games were euchre; men, Mrs. McIntyre, Ivan Harris; ladies, Mrs. DeForest, Mrs. Near, Crokino; ladies, Mrs. Spear, Annie Atkins; gents, Bert Davidson, and Mrs. Allen. A nice lunch of tea biscuits, jam and cheese concluded a good meeting.

Spring's fancy?

Does the recent controversy over the film "Sexuality and Communication" to be shown in area high schools, have anything to do with the fact spring is here?
